Taft Sweeps Ohio Primary

By JACK BELL

COLUMBUS, O. — (AP) — Sen. Estes Kefauver of Tennessee won half of Ohio's 54 Democratic Presidential delegates today as Sen. Robert A. Taft overwhelmed home-state opposition to take all 56 Republican votes.

Kefauver, who campaigned only briefly in Ohio, swept to victory over a state Democratic organization slate pledged to former Sen. Robert J. Bulkley in contests involving 27 votes, despite the fact that his followers entered only 31 races.

Taft turned into a landslide victory a home-state primary battle with former Gov. Harold E. Stassen of Minnesota. There were 47 Stassen delegate candidates, most of whom said they would have backed Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower as second choice.

Back On Top

These smashing results of yesterday's record-breaking vote turnout put the Ohio Senator back on top in his race with Gen. Eisenhower for Chicago convention delegates.

Kefauver, defeated by a narrow margin by Sen. Richard B. Russell of Georgia in yesterday's Florida popularity primary, salvaged much of his prestige here. He cracked wide open an Ohio Democratic organization attempt to keep its delegation sewed up under the favorite son banner of former Sen. Robert J. Bulkley.

In a state primary contest, Charles P. Taft, brother of the Ohio Senator, won the Republican nomination for Governor. He will be opposed in November by Democratic Gov. Frank J. Lausche, renominated without opposition.

Senator Taft claimed his complete sweep of the Ohio delegates put him out in front of Eisenhower by 401 votes to the general's 271.

An Associated Press tabulation, including the 56 Ohio delegates, credited Taft with 332 votes and gave Eisenhower 281.

Sen. Russell Shades Kefauver In Florida

By DON WHITEHEAD

Miami, Fla.—(AP)—North Florida's farmer vote today gave Senator Russell of Georgia the boost he needed to defeat Senator Kefauver of Tennessee in this state's Democratic Presidential popularity contest.

It was a jolt for Kefauver who hadn't been whipped before in a Presidential preference primary. But the farmers who are Russell's next-door neighbors turned the trick.

Russell's margin was slender throughout the night although he was out in front all the way. The late rural vote counts from yesterday's primary slowly but steadily built up his margin of victory.

The vote from 1398 of 1682 precincts: Russell 281,418; Kefauver 252,496.

Russell had 50.7 per cent of the total vote cast in the Presidential race to 46 per cent for Kefauver.

The big issue between Kefauver and Russell was the administration's proposed Fair Employment Practices Commission which caused a Dixie revolt in the 1948 Democratic convention.

Both men declared their opposition to a compulsory FEPC offered by President Truman as a way to curb job discrimination because of race, color or creed. Kefauver said he would accept such a plank in the Democratic platform while Russell said he was unalterably opposed to what he called a "compulsory jail-sentence FEPC."

Russell insisted, however, he would not bolt the Democratic national convention over the FEPC issue and that he would stay in the convention to fight against it to the end.

Methodists Keep Ban On Smoking

By STEVEN V. DAVID

SAN FRANCISCO —(AP)— The quadrennial general conference of the Methodist church closed a legislation - packed 14-day session last night with a parting shot at smoking.

In the final, fast-moving session, the conference voted to continue the no smoking pledge required of ministerial candidates. It voted against giving full ministerial rights to women, set forth the church's views on war and peace, made a change in the church's social creed, and set up a new board to study social and economic relations.

Church spokesmen said the conference made more major changes in church organization than any since the first conference of the United Methodist churches in 1939. It also handled a record number of legislative petitions.

Some of the most heated debate came in the final hours. Urging the conference to throw out the no smoking pledge, the Rev. Dr. John M. Versteeg of Athens, Ohio, demanded.

"Did you ever hear of a man coming home and beating his wife and children because he had too much smoke inside him?"

The Rev. Dr. Cyrus Albertson of Seattle voiced the opinion of opponents when he said:

"It's not so much tobacco use as the impression ministerial candidates will get that somehow the Methodist Church has pulled down its standards."

Sewer Cavein Traps Seven Boys; Four Dead

SAFFORD, Ariz.— (AP) —The sandy banks of an excavation for a sewer line crashed down on seven boys yesterday, killing four and pinning the others temporarily under tons of earth.

The dirt gave way suddenly as the youngsters were playing in the bottom of the nine-foot ditch.

The dust raised by the cave-in attracted Mrs. Enos Howard, who was coming out of her nearby home. She ran to the scene with a shovel and began screaming for help.

Police and firemen were summoned quickly, but were unable to bring up the four bodies in less than 20 minutes as the sand kept crumbling back into the hole.

Socialists Gain In British Vote

LONDON — (AP) — British Socialists have scored strong gains in the opening phase of small town and rural council elections that last through Saturday.

Conservative headquarters conceded they were losing ground in this test of political sentiment among 20 million voters, just as they did in last month's county council elections when Laborites scored a landslide in London and made big gains in other large centers.

The Socialists narrowly lost control of the national government last October, after six years in power. They contend the local elections show the Tories already have lost the country's confidence and should submit to a new national election.

There is no official centralized reporting of returns in this week's elections, but reports gathered by both the major political parties showed a strong trend to the Laborites.

The Laborites claimed a net gain of 90 seats. The Conservatives said the Socialists, of 1,204 seats decided, had won a net of only 68. The Conservatives admitted net losses of 49 seats they held and recorded 19 more losses among Independents who usually side with the Conservatives. A total of 8,612 seats are being filled.

Deer Control May Be Dud This Year

By JAMES A. O. CROWE

LANSING — (AP) — A new law giving the Conservation Commission discretionary power over deer today had Governor Williams' approval, but he warned it might not mean anything this year.

The bill giving the commission the right to set deer hunting regulations in the Lower Peninsula was signed by the governor yesterday.

The measure, a general revision of the game law, also lengthens the seasons on grouse, rabbits and raccoons.

The Legislature failed to give the bill immediate effect. So it becomes effective 90 days after the final adjournment of the Legislature.

Republican legislative leaders have threatened to hold the Legislature in session all year.

The new law changes the dividing line between the northern and southern regions of the Lower Peninsula from town line 16 to Highway M-20 and provides that the use of spotlights to locate deer automatically gives conservation officers the right to search cars for illegal weapons.

Conservation officers will be empowered to enforce other than conservation laws if the violations are committed by hunters while hunting.

The commission is empowered to set seasons on bear and skunk and Dickinson, Houghton and Keweenaw are added to the counties in which archers may shoot deer of either sex.

Head Of U. S. Steel Quits $211,000 Job; Fairless Takes Over

NEW YORK— (AP) —Benjamin F. Fairless took over full direction of the nation's largest steel producer today, following the retirement of Irving S. Olds as chairman of the United States Steel Corp.

Olds retired yesterday from his $211,000-a-year job, and Fairless immediately was named the new chairman of the board of directors.

Fairless will continue as the president of the steel industry giant, making him the first man in the corporation's 50-year history to hold both posts. He also was appointed chief executive officer.

Fairless, a coal miner's son who became U. S. Steel's president at the start of 1938, earned $261,000 with the corporation last year.

Truck Kills Baby

Official Handed Him Knife, Says Jackson Rioter

JACKSON, Mich.—(AP)—A state fact-finding panel sought today to find out whether there was an basis for a convict's story that he was handed a knife by a friendly prison official before the big April riot at Southern Michigan prison.

The panel planned to press its inquiry into the causes of the riot by calling key figures among the convicts to testify.

The three-member committee appointed by Gov. G. Mennen Williams was flabbergasted by the story of official connivance told yesterday by convict Ray Young, 23.

Weapon Smuggled In

Young, a Detroit safecracker, touched off a mutiny in disciplinary cellblock 15 the night of Sunday, April 20, by seizing a rookie guard who entered his cell and overpowering him with a knife.

Young told the committee that a big, heavy knife was smuggled to him by an official. He refused to name the official but asserted he still was friendly to those who took part in the revolt.

The mutiny in the disciplinary cellblock led to a riot that caused $2,500,000 damages to the prison and the death of one convict. The mutineers surrendered and released eight prison guards held as hostages after authoriities granted their reform demands and promised there would be no reprisals by the state department of corrections. Authorities also appeased the rioters with a steak and ice cream dinner.

Another Revolt Predicted

The governor's fact-finders questioning Young were Lester P. Dodd, president of the State Bar and committee chairman; Talbot Smith, Ann Arbor attorney, and Richard Rogers, Midland chief of police.

Young told the committee the mutineers were all set to "blow up" the prison in the riot that ended April 24 but he wouldn't elaborate.

Murder Charged At Cassidy Lake

ANN ARBOR, Mich. — (AP)— Murder warrants were issued today against two young prisoners in the stabbing at Cassidy Lake state training camp of Anthony G. Bedard, whose body was found in a cistern.

Washtenaw county prosecutor Douglas Reading identified the pair as Jack Howard, 19, of Muskegon and Sylvester Salva, 21, of Detroit.

At the Ionia reformatory deputy warden William Bannan said that Howard confessed to the actual slaying and implicated Salva.

Howard was questtioned at the reformatory last night by Bannan and Prosecutor Reading.

The body of the 17-year-old Bedard, a Detroiter, was found in a cistern at the rural camp May 1. It was bound with electric wire and weighted with a concrete block.

No motive was yet known for the slaying, the prosecutor said.

He said Howard, a convicted forger, and Salva, whose three-year sentence for breaking and entering was to have been completed Friday, were bunkmates of young Bedard at the camp.

Suspicion was turned on the pair by other inmates, the prosecutor declared.

A camp electrician, Salva had access to the type of wire used to tie the concrete block to Bedard's body. Reading said that Salva was treated for a cut at the camp infirmary the night Bedard disappeared.

Fleischmann Resigns; Fowler New Boss Of Defense Production

WASHINGTON — (AP) — Manly Fleischmann resigned today as defense production administrator and President Truman nominated Henry M. Fowler to succeed him.

Fowler, who is now administrator of the National Production Authority, will continue to hold that post while serving as DPA chief.

Fleischmann at one time held both jobs.

In his resignation, which the President accepted effective May 31, Fleischmann told Truman that the mobilization program "has now progressed to a point where I feel justified in asking you to accept my resignation."

Truman Whistle-Stop Talks Will Be Aimed At Stalin's Helpers

By ERNEST B. VACCARO

WASHINGTON — (AP) — President Truman, approaching his 68th birthday, today contemplated a future of whistle stop campaigning against those he accused of playing right down Stalin's alley.

His targets, he says, will be the appropriations-cutters and lobbyists who have fought him since he first laid down his 21-point program of foreign and domestic legislation in September of 1945. He placed special emphasis on budget cutters he said were "about to ruin the national defense program."

The President put the "real estate lobby" high on his list of targets in a sample "whistle stop" speech last night to a cheering dinner crowd of members of the National Housing Conference at the Hotel Statler.

In a "give 'em hell" speech reminiscent of his 1948 election campaign, Truman displayeed a vigor that seemed to belie the fact that he will turn 68 tomorrow.

"There have been certain things happening in this country that have been right down the alley Mr. Stalin wants us to go," he declared. "Now let's stop it. Let's get our senses back and stop it."

He called the "real estate lobby" a stubborn and selfish lot and added that "some of them are making their living fighting housing."

He repeated a statement of his 1948 campaign that Sen. Robert A. Taft of Ohio turned against his own bill for a long-range housing program in the extra session of that year and got the Senate to kill it.

He accused opponents of "trying to choke the public housing program to death" by cutting off appropriations, and of hamstringing the government in its efforts to get world peace by "about ruining the national defense program."

Allied Package Offer Rejected Flatly By Reds

By ROBERT B. TUCKMAN

MUNSAN, Korea — (AP)—Korean truce talks sank to an all-time low today after the Communists rejected the Allies' "clear, final and irrevocable" package proposal.

Top negotiators of each side told the other: "The next move is up to you."

Agreement appeared so remote the United Nations Command proposed an indefinite recess of armistice talks. But full delegations will meet again tomorrow at 11 a. m. (9 p. m. Wednesday EST) at Red insistence.

Secrecy Ended

Negotiators abruptly ended the secrecy which had shrouded the talks since the Allied package deal was presented April 28. In Tokyo Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway promptly announced the virtual Allied ultimatum. It is a three-point package:

1. The U. N. command would return 70,000 of 132,000 captured Chinese and North Koreans in exchange for 12,000 Allied troops held by the Reds. This is the crux of the deadlock.

2. The Communists would be permitted to build and repair North Korean airfields.

3. The Reds would drop their nomination of Russia as a "neutral nation" to help police a truce.

Ridgway said this was a package to be accepted as a whole. He said:

"Our position is one from which we cannot and shall not retreat."

Prisoners Prefer Death

The Communists turned down this package and submitted a counter offer Friday, it was disclosed. The Allies rejected it.

Under the Red plan the Communists would get back 132,000 prisoners in exchange for 12,000 U. N. pows. The other two points would be the same as the Allied plan. The Reds previously had hinted repeatedly they wanted to swap Russian supervision for the right to repair airfields.

The big issue is voluntary versus involuntary repatriation of prisoners. The U. N. command says only 70,000 prisoners of war and civilians said they would be willing to return to Communist

Flames Ravage Big Detroit Lumberyard

DETROIT—(AP)— Fire, billowing before a strong north wind, swept a big northwest side lumber yard last night, leaving damage estimated by firemen at $500,000.

More than 150 firemen, including civilian defense volunteers, fought an hour and a half to bring the towering flames under control at the Restrick Lumber Co.

The blaze started in rubbish on adjoining property of Alumatic Windows Inc. fanned by the wind, it spread to tinder-dry lumber stacked nearby.

School Tax Held Up In Negaunee

LANSING — (AP)—The Negaunee board of education was notified by Attorney General Frank G. Millard today that it must levy on agreed-upon school bond issue tax by May 15 or face mandamus action in the state supreme court.

The attorney general acted on request of the State Municipal Finance Commission.

The commission said this was another case of a school district refusing to levy the full tax that it promised bondholders because increased property valuations had made the full tax unnecessary to meet the annual debt requirements. The commission has insisted these districts abide by the terms of the bond agreements.

The commission said that the Negaunee district has not levied the agreed-upon 10 mills tax for several years and has instituted "delaying tactics" since last November.

The district, the board said, was ordered to act March 2 but obtained several postponements and voted May 2 to take no action until after its July school board election to avoid interfering with a scheduled city sewage disposal system bond issue vote or to commit new board members who would be elected in July.

Planes Rip Up Red Rail Lines In Korea

SEOUL, Korea—(AP)—Allied war planes ripped up two Red rail lines in 340 places yesterday and were back blasting them again today.

Fifth Air Force fighter-bombers opened up more gaps today in the stretch of main line north of Red Korea's capital, Pyongyang, broken in 170 places yesterday.

Another 170 cuts were reported by pilots from the carriers Valley Forge and Princeton. They worked over an 80 mile segment of the east coast railway, centered on Hamhung.

Oil Strikers Agree To Attend Meeting With WSB May 13

DENVER— (AP) —The coordinating committee of the 22 oil unions on strike in the oil industry has agreed to attend a meeting before the Wage Stabilization Board May 13.

WSB Chairman Nathan P. Feinsinger in Washington, D. C., yesterday asked for an end to the strike and renewal of bargaining. The meeting next Tuesday will be to give the WSB a full background on the controversy.

Back To President

This opened the way for speculation that the WSB, which never handles a case when a strike is in progress, will turn the oil dispute back to President Truman, who will be faced with the problem of whether to invoke the Taft-Hartley law. This could bring about an injunction barring further striking.

It is possible bargaining for settlement with the aid of federal mediation and conciliation service would be renewed.

Several recently negotiated contracts might be considered a pattern for nationwide settlement.

O. A. Knight of Denver, president of the Oil Worker International Union (CIO) which heads the coalition of AFL, Independent and CIO unions, wired Feinsinger:

"The coordinating committee of the oil unions x x x agrees to attend the meeting before the Wage Stabilization Board May 13, as you requested.

"Your request that the parties 'resume work and production immediately' is being considered by all groups involved and our reply to this request will follow at the earliest possible moment.

" . . . We regret the board's action at this time and point out that it might cause an immediate breakdown in negotiations, which have been progressing favorably in several areas."

The board turned the dispute back to the unions and management April 16 for more collective bargaining after failure to get

Congress Mixes In Steel Row

By B. L. Livingstone

Feinsinger was summoned before the House Labor Committee in a broad investigation of WSB policy, especially as it has been applied in the steel case.

Center of a storm of controversy stirred up in Congress over the board's steel decision, Feinsinger went to the Capitol after announcing he plans to quit his job by June 30. Feinsinger, on leave from the University of Wisconsin law school, told an audience in Madison, Wis., Monday night he is tired and needs a rest.

The board's recommendation of a 26-cents-an-hour wage increase "package" touched off a history-making wrangle in the steel case which led to President Truman's seizure of the steel mills.

That action is now before the Supreme Court, with arguments scheduled to begin Monday. Pending a final decision, the steel mills are operating under government control.

Dry Spell Expected To End Thursday

DETROIT—(AP)—Michigan's 14-day spring dry spell may end with rain Thursday afternoon or evening, the weatherman said today.

However more fair weather was predicted for today and tonight after an overnight dip in the temperature. It was 39 in Detroit at 5 a. m. and there was frost upstate. Somewhat cloudy and warmer was the forecast for tonight.

Gaastra Woman Regains Luggage

NEW YORK—(AP)—Aboard an ocean liner headed for Europe with six small children and no luggage? Don't worry—the Coast Guard will get it to you.

At least that's how Mrs. Mary Dougovito of Gaastra, Mich., was supplied with her family's baggage yesterday. And it took a Coast Guard helicopter and cutter to do the job.

Mrs. Dougovito, en route to join her husband, Maj. Carl J. Dougovito in Germany, forgot about her luggage while shepherding her youngsters aboard the Navy transport Gen. Alexander Patch.

She had left it behind in the rear of an Army bus and the driver discovered it when he arrived at Idlewild Airport on another trip.

The Army asked for a Coast Guard helicopter to ferry the luggage from Idlewild to the outbound liner. The helicopter flew out but couldn't make it because the ship's booms were in the way.

So it dropped the baggage at Sandy Hook Coast Guard station. And while the Gen. Patch, on radio radio orders, stood off Sandy Hook a Coast Guard cutter ferried the luggage out to Mrs. Dugovito and the six little Dougovitos.

State Commission May Veto Fund For Powers Sanatorium

LANSING — (AP)—Allotment of building funds to various local tuberculosis sanatoria, after a year of controversy, seems to be tossed back into the lap of the state Tuberculosis Sanatorium Commission.

Attorney General Frank G. Millard ruled that money from the $65,000,000 hospital construction bond issue could only be used to install "needed" additional beds or to plan and construct new institutions.

Dr. Albert E. Heustis, state health commissioner and president of the Sanatorium Commission, said he did not know what affect Millard's ruling would have on the applications for funds by some eight county institutions, all of which have been approved in one form or another by the Commission.

He said he assumed the opinion would rule out funds for the Gogebic County Sanatorium, which first submitted plans for adding 12 beds, was told by the commission to drop those plans and ask for service improvements and has refiled a request for money which will provide no additional beds.

There is some doubt, Dr. Heustis said, whether the commission would consider funds proper for Pinecrest Sanatorium at Powers, which hopes to install 12 more beds.

Dr. Heustis' request for an opinion mentioned the Saginaw County Tuberculosis Sanatorium and the Morgan Heights Sanatorium at Marquette, both of which contemplate new beds. He said he did not mean to imply these were not eligible for funds.

The board opened bids for the purchase of a new piano at the Senior high school and accepted the low bid of Manley Anderson of $511.00 for a piano and bench.

The board referred to its purchasing committee a proposal to purchase a three-quarter ton truck.

Supt. John A. Lemmer reported to the board that the Bay Cliff camp sponsored by the local school district without cost to the school district will be continued under the sponsorship of the Escanaba Public Schools for one more year, after which new arrangements for the sponsorship of the program will be made by the State Department of Public Instruction.

The superintendent also reported that a survey of students in the high school indicated a demand for continuance of three foreign languages. Plans for offering the three languages, French, Spanish and Latin, are being made for the 1952-53 school year, he said.

Hot Lunch Program

Facilities for a hot lunch program at the Senior high school will be installed for the 1952-53 school year, the superintendent reported. The absence of bus transportation has made this necessary, Mr. Lemmer said.

The board approved the purchase of $20,000 in U. S. Treasury certificates from the Catherine Bonifas funds, and accepted $50 from the P. E. O. Sisterhood for the Mary Ellen French scholarship.

Attending the meeting last night as observers from the League of Women Voters were Mrs. Russell Johnson and Mrs. Robert Haven.

Metal Allocations To Auto Industry Unfair, Ford Claims

WASHINGTON — (AP) — Appealing for a bigger share of automobile steel, the Ford Motor Company has accused the government of "arbitrary and capricious" allocation of scarce metals within the automobile industry.

William T. Gossett, vice president and general counsel, made the accusation before the appeals board of the National Production Authority here yesterday, adding that the present allocations setup is costing Ford a possible 254 million dollars a year.

Opposed By Chrysler

Chrysler, the nation's No. 2 car producer, and 13 other auto makers are opposing the Ford petition causing the biggest dispute to have yet arisen out of allocation powers awarded to the government under the defense production act. General Motors and Studebaker are not taking sides in the wrangle.

If the Ford petition is granted, the three major car producers of the nation will be awarded larger shares of current steel production.

Chrysler contends, however, that Ford would get the largest increase "thereby further increasing its allotment and creating for itself under government controls a standing in the industry that its own efforts have not brought it in any of the past seventeen years."

On the other hand, Gossett told the NPA appeals board that Chrysler is trying to maintain its posiio "by government decree."

Ford bases its petition on the fact that the small car producers are not using up their steel allotments and contends that NPA's choice of a base production period —1947-49—on which to calculate auto steel allotments "was improper under the defense production act and unfair."

Base Period Faulty

Gossett said, "The injustice to Ford is due to the fact that NPA has reduced Ford's share of industry production substantially below the share it had attained at the outbreak of the Korean war as a result of fair and free competition.

"This loss to Ford, without taking into account any improvement since June 24, 1950 in Ford's current competitive position, alone amounts annually to approximately 95,000 passenger cars and 60,000 trucks at the authorized NPA production rate for the third quarter of 1952."

Ford proposed that the year ending June 30, 1950—less than a week later the outbreak of the Korean hostilities—be used instead.

Ford declared that the 1947-1949 base period is unfair to it because the company was at that time beset by union disputes and was undergoing a major reorganization which included the loss of some 220,000 units during a changeover in 1948 alone.

Mexican Clubs Will Climb Mt. McKinley

MEXICO CITY — (AP) — Two Mexican mountaineering clubs have joined forces to attempt the ascent of 20,270-foot Mt. McKinley, highest peak on the North American continent.

The clubs, formed of printing and railroad workers, will go to Alaska in June for the climb they hope to fly a Mexican flag from the summit, the same flag they flew last year from the top of 22,835-foot Mt. Aconcagua, in Argentina, highest point in the Western Hemisphere.

Norton Estate Report Issued

The sale of two parcels of property in the John P. Norton estate, bequeathed to the Escanaba School District for scholarships, was reported to the school board at its meeting last night.

A home at 508 S. Seventh St., was sold to Matt Lewis for $11,561 and a lot in the 700 block of S 15th street was sold to Ben Fineman for $1651, the board was informed by James Frost, executor of the estate.

Other property in the estate remaining to be sold include Old Orchard Farm at Flat Rock, the Escanaba Daily Press and the estate's interest in Radio Station WDBC.

James G. Ward Jr., manager of the Escanaba Press, outlined to the board the financial operations of the newspaper. He presented to the board the annual audit for the 1951 year.

The report showed gross revenue for the year was $331,375 and expenses were $292,610. Net profit was $38,765 which was applied to capital improvements. Because the company is owned by the board of education, the company's profits were not subject to taxes.

Heart Disease Deaths Increase In Scotland

GLASCOW, Scotland — (AP) — More Scotmen are dying from heart disease, but the tuberculosis death rate shows a substantial drop.

The Scottish Health Services Coucil reported that in the last 20 years there has been a "real, substantial, and progressive increase in coronary heart disease", and particularly in the number of deaths it causes at ages under 60.

Coronary heart disease accounted for just under one per cent of all deaths in 1931. In 1948 the figure was 8.5 per cent.

Men breathe about 425 cubic feet of air in 24 hours.

Work Resumes At Ore Docks

Ore dock operations returned to a normal level this morning as more than 100 workers were called back to their jobs following the termination of the nation-wide steel strike.

The full force of employes were preparing for the loading of five scheduled ore boats today, it was reported by L. A. McMillan, ore dock agent, who added that the schedule also showed a "good line-up" of boats expected in the next few days.

Resumption of operations here was matched by renewed loading activity at the mines which ship to Escanaba. By this morning all ranges in the Upper Peninsula were on a full-time working schedule, according to McMillan.

Ore boats expected to arrive today, in addition to the Strs. Olcott and Algocen which were loading this morning, are the Durston, the Cole and the Westmount.

McMillan reported that dock operations were cut to 50 per cent of normal activity following the resumption of the steel strike last week after a judicial ruling returned the steel industry to the owners. Previous to that, the Federal District Court ruled unconstitutional President Truman's seizure of the industry.

Spring Restrictions Revised On Highways

LANSING—(AP) — Weight restrictions will be modified in the Upper Peninsula effective at 6 p. m. today by the state highway department.

Trucks will be permitted normal loads at 35 miles an hour on blacktop and gravel trunklines east of and including M-95. Restrictions, however, will continue on M-69 in Dickinson and Delta counties and on all gravel and blacktop roads in Iron, Baraga, Houghton, Keweenaw, Ontonagon and Gogebic counties.

All restrictions have been lifted on concrete and concrete based roads.

Presidential Power Issue Is Best Left To High Court For Decision

IT is difficult to understand where Judge McGranary really does stand on the issue of Presidential authority in times of emergency.

He told the Senate committee investigating his qualifications as an appointee to the office of attorney general that he felt the President of the United States has the right "to do any and all things necessary to preserve the life, the liberty and the property of its citizens."

Under further questioning, however, Judge McGranery said the President is bound by the Constitution and the laws of the land.

Obviously these two statements are contradictory. Presumably you're supposed to take your choice. It is well to know how the prospective attorney general feels about this issue because if he's confirmed by the Senate, he will be the No. 1 legal advisor to the President.

The President certainly cannot do anything that he wants to in times of emergency and still be bound by the U. S. Constitution because the Constitution does not declare nor imply that the President has unlimited authority in times of emergency. Who declares the emergency in such an event and under what conditions?

It is apparent that if the President should possess the right to do as he pleases in an emergency and if he also has the right to determine when an emergency exists, it is dictatorial power beyond any previous conception of American law. Any President can by-pass Congress and the Judiciary simply by declaring an emergency. He can abrogate any law or invoke a new one by Presidential direction.

We hope that this issue is settled by the United States Supreme Court and the sooner the better. The Court has agreed to rule on the case and undoubtedly will do so if there is no change in the present status of the steel situation.

Let's Face Highways' Grim Problems

THE National Safety Council throws out a statistic or two that should give us warning of peril on the highways in the months ahead.

Gasoline consumption in the United States for the first two months of 1952 is up 10 per cent over 1951. This figure is generally used by the Council in computing highway travel.

This 1952 increase, coming before vacation driving has really begun, presages the greatest total of travel miles in U. S. history. And since the death curve tends to follow the travel curve consistently, we may be in for a new high in motor traffic fatalities.

These deaths are the grimmest of all reminders that this country doesn't have its highway problems even half solved. When will we get around to facing up to this difficult situation?

Less Prevention More Cure Is Answer

IT makes good sense that Newark airport once more has been opened to traffic, albeit it is still restricted to military planes only.

The public indignation over the three Elizabeth, N. J., crashes in that airport's close orbit is thoroughly understandable. Certainly every possible measure ought to be taken to assure safe handling of traffic at Newark and every other large metropolitan airport.

But the extreme of closing down such a field permanently is unwise. In the present state of development of aircraft, airports, and the cities themselves, it is simply impractical. Were it to be resorted to generally, hardly an airport in the United States could function, since most of the large ones are near big cities.

Under the laws of chance, you might get three bad auto accidents at one single intersection in a space of 24 hours. But would you then decide that the sensible course was to close off the intersection to all traffic? It's hardly likely.

The answer to the Elizabeth crashes lies not in banning traffic but in improving controls over landings and take-offs, improving aircraft maintenance and repair, guiding traffic with a full concern for the risks affecting the city populations near the fields.

Voteless Washington Seeks Fair Treatment

WHY does Congress doggedly hold on to its task of serving as a municipal council for voteless Washington, D. C., the ninth largest city in the nation?

This means, of course, that the time the nation's lawmakers take to act on municipal problems of Washington is time that is not available for vital national matters. Moreover, it is obvious that a busy Congress cannot possibly meet the local needs of the nation's capital.

The U. S. Senate on Jan. 22 passed the Case-Kefauver-Taft bill to restore an elected council to Washington. Although platforms of both political parties support this "home rule" for the District of Columbia, the House District committee continues to block the home rule bills. A petition to discharge the bill from committee is now being circulated, requiring a total of 218 signers.

The Case-Kefauver-Taft bill not only would return to residents of Washington the right to select its own democratic government, but it also would restore to the citizens the right to vote.

Imagine in democratic America the intorerable situation that exists. The residents of the capital city are denied the right of franchise.

There are 802,178 voteless residents of Washington, D. C. They deserve the help of their countrymen to free them from the unfair and undemocratic situation that exists, to restore to them the right to vote and the right to select their own councilmen.

THE BELLHOP'S INCOME TAXES
(Duluth News Tribune)

Because a middle-aged Cleveland bellhop drove too fast in a suburb, millions of Americans have added cause to wonder about the effectiveness of federal income tax collections. The bellhop was stopped by an alert new patrolman. Something about his behavior aroused the officer's curiosity. He searched the man and found bankbooks showing rather comfortable earnings.

The government claims indicate estimated earnings of $4,000 to $5,000 a year for the bellhop. Whether he had paid anything at all in the way of income taxes is not clear. Possibly the country will learn more about this case. We hope so.

Sums involved in one incident like this one are microscopic beside the national budget. They are tiny beside some of the really gaudy tax evasion cases. But the people who can dodge taxes on a small scale are rather numerous. Even 1,000 each escaping payment of $6,000 would mean $6,000,000 gone.

It is difficult to get all the taxes due from persons whose income is received from many sources, without records, but the federal government owes it to every salary earner and every business owner to make the strongest effort possible to collect such taxes.

Fairness is basic in any plan for public acceptance of sacrifice. People whose incomes, large or small, are a matter of record, pay regularly and heavily, and can expect to continue.

We can't afford free riders. The nation needs their money, and the patriotic majority needs assurance that everyone is paying his full share.

A magician complains of the absence of new tricks. He should meet Junior and his kid sister.

Merry-Go-Round

By DREW PEARSON

WASHINGTON—Now that the steel mills are running again, some administration leaders are canvassing means of winding up the entire mess by giving the steel industry a moderate price increase in order to take care of a wage increase.

Several cabinet members privately have long favored such a plan, especially Secretary of Defense Lovett. John Steelman, the acting defense mobilizer, once also definitely favored a $5-a-ton price increase for steel, as did Charles E. Wilson.

However, each move in this direction has run up against the quiet adamant opposition of an ex-governor from Georgia, Price Administrator Ellis Arnall.

And Arnall flatly refuses to budge.

At one White House meeting held just before the President seized the steel industry, various cabinet members were urging a moderate price increase in steel prices as a sop to the industry.

"You can increase 'em all right," drawled Arnall good-naturedly. "You can increase 'em if you want to wreck the country."

Arnall wasnt mad a 'bit. He even sounded as if he was half kidding. But those who know him realized that he was deadly serious, especially when he added:

"You can increase 'em all right. But you will have to get yourselves a new price administrator."

STEEL PROFITS

The quiet threat of Arnall's resignation was enough to stop further discussion. Furthermore, he was backed up by his immediate superior, Roger Putnam, a manufacturer from Springfield, Mass., who knows what it's like to make a profit and meet a payroll.

Arnall also produced figures showing that the steel industry could pay the package wage increase recommended by the wage stabilization board and yet reduce its profits only 12 cents a ton under the high profit base from 1946 to 1949—after taxes. Arnall likewise showed that the steel industry, after paying the wage increase, and after paying taxes, would have a profit of only 60 cents a ton less than its record-breaking profits during the year 1951 when steel dividends soared to an all-time high as a result of the Korean war.

He argued that the steel industry should not make money at the expense of the Korean war. He also pointed out that these profits were after taxes.

The steel industry has not challenged Arnall's figures.

STEEL MERRY-GO-ROUND

When news of the court of appeals decision first reached the White House, Justice Department officials wanted to get out an injunction against the steelworkers, forcing them to go back to work. Solicitor General Philip Perlman and Holmes Baldridge, assistant attorney general, both argued that the workers were striking against the government. . . Secretary of Commerce Sawyer, however, opposed. He warned that the appeals court decision favoring the government was by too slender a margin to get out an injunction. . . Justice Department officials then proposed that labor be offered an immediate wage increase. This Secretary Sawyer also opposed. "We ought not to buy 'em back," he claimed. . . As a result, Truman issued his midnight appeal to Phil Murray—which worked. . . The President has asked acting Attorney General Perlman to submit a full report on how the Taft-Hartley act could be used—if necessary. Originally Truman was leery about using his "inherent" powers to seize the steel mills. . . Charlie Murphy, White House counsel, at one time advised the President to make a strong speech to a joint session of Congress, urging legislation empowering him to take over any vital industry threatened with a shutdown during an emergency. Truman finally rejected this idea, figuring the Dixiecrat coalition would block it.

OIL NEGOTIATIONS

The oil strike would have been speedily settled last week, with very little loss in production, but for two backstage factors.

No. 1—was the clamoring of congressional anti-laborites, fired up by the steel strike, for legislation outlawing all shutdowns in emergency periods. This suddenly stiffened the backs of oil-company spokesmen who were close to a wage agreement with CIO, AFL and independent oil unions.

No. 2—was the backstage kibitzing of powerful Standard Oil of New Jersey, which had settled with its independent union workers for an approximate 10 cents an hour basic wage boost (plus extra pay for night shifts) and didn't want the rest of the industry to go any higher.

At one stage of the negotiations several big companies, including Standard Oil of Indiana, Continental, Phillips Petroleum and Pan-Am Southern Oil, upped their original offer of about 10 cents an hour (basic) for their employees to approximately 15 cents an hour.

'Lone Eagle' Hero 25 Years Ago, Lindbergh Now Almost Forgotten

By WADE JONES
NEA Staff Correspondent

NEW YORK—(NEA)—A balding, graying man in his fifties, he lives quietly now, almost forgotten, in the little town of Darien, Conn., with his wife and five children.

But he nurses as vivid a set of memories as ever a man was cursed or blessed with.

Twenty-five years ago this month he came out of the West with a big hope and a small airplane, and said he planned to fly the Atlantic Ocean non-stop from New York to Paris. It had never been done before.

But he did it. His name was Charles Augustus Lindbergh.

The lanky, curly-haired youngster of 25, already with the familiar crinkle - cornered eyes of the flyer, turned up at Curtiss Field, Long Island, on May 12, 1927, with a silver-nosed monoplane he called the Spirit of St. Louis.

Airplanes had just reached the point of development where a transatlantic flight was believed barely possible. The Frenchmen Nungesser and Coli had gone down at sea only that week in an attempt. Death and crack-ups had ended other ventures.

At least two planes were all set to take off from New York when Lindbergh learned, on the night of May 19, that the storms over the Atlantic were breaking up.

The rest of the night he spent in hurried preparation. No sleep. With five sandwiches and five quarts of water, Lindbergh climbed into his plane at 7:40 the next morning. At 7:51 the plane, its single Wright Whirlwind engine developing only 200 horsepower, began trundling slowly and heavily down the muddy landing strip.

* * *

It was loaded to the limit with fuel. No engine of that horsepower had ever lifted such a heavy load. The big job was the take-off, now underway. Already three contenders—Fonck, Davis, and Wooster — had failed to get off the ground.

Many in the crowd at Curtiss Field that May 20 morning sincerely doubted that Lindbergh would ever make it. Slowly, slowly the plane gained speed. It passed the point where Lindbergh could still stop it without cracking up.

Pilots in the crowd twisted and turned, trying hopefully to get the plane off the ground with their own body English. "Get the tail up, get the tail up," they urged, half aloud.

Finally the tail did come up, then the wheels lifted ever so slightly. Over a tractor by a 10-foot margin, over telephone wires by a scant 20 feet. But she was off and flying.

Some 12 hours later the Spirit of St. Louis, a tiny speck in the sky, was sighted on course and on schedule over Newfoundland. Then Lindbergh ran into storms. He had to turn at right angles, flying first north and then south, to dodge through the boiling clouds which meant big wind.

Some time in the lonesome darkness that night, Lindbergh ate a sandwich, the only one he had during the entire trip. Late the next day he sighted some specks to the south and far below. Fishing boats.

* * *

He circled low over one and yelled, "Which way's Ireland?" The astonished fisherman in the boat just looked, speechless.

MOST FAMOUS PHOTO of Lindy—the "Lone Eagle"—is this one made by Frank Merta at Curtiss Field, Long Island, just before Lindbergh took off on his historic flight 25 years ago.

But fishing boats meant land not far away, and in a few hours Lindbergh spotted the southern tip of Ireland.

Over Ireland, England, and the Channel. At the French coast he picked up the beacon lights of the London-Paris airway. They guided him in to Paris' Le Bourget airfield, where his wheels touched down 33½ hours after they'd lifted from Curtiss Field.

A crowd of 100,000 wildly cheering Frenchmen greeted him at the airport. They hauled him bodily from his plane and passed him along overhead hand-to-hand rolling and twisting. It was one half-hour before his feet touched the ground.

MOST RECENT photo of Lindbergh was made at aviation dinner in Washington in December, 1949

LINDBERGH AND WIFE, the former Anne Morrow, appeared together in 1941 at rallies of the American First Committee, of which Lindbergh was a leader. He was sharply criticized by Roosevelt.

By CLINT DUNATHAN

GETTING THEIR GOAT—Visiting some friends of ours in the county the other day we discovered them in the process of negotiating the purchase of a goat or goats.

They wanted goats, they said, because they wanted a source of sweet, fresh milk, at reasonable cost.

This led to a bit of research on the subject on our part and the conclusion that the United States is a bit behind other countries in developing the goat business, if that is what it is called.

There are about 500 million goats in India. Nine other countries, including Russia, have more goats than the United States, which is dedicated to the cow for its milk supply.

* * *

NUMBER IS GROWING — The goat is often described as "the poor man's cow" and perhaps Americans in the majority are too rich to be poor—even when they are indigents on the dole.

In Delta county, we learned, the number of people with herds of goats is small. There are no goats entered at the U. P. State Fair and if you should announce in a mixed crowd that you were drinking goat's milk you would be looked upon as an ulcerous eccentric.

Slowly the number of goats raised in the U. S. is increasing, however, and not just for the purpose of alleviating stomach disorders.

* * *

COW IS SECOND — In our browsing concerning the subject of goats we turned to the encyclopedia for further information.

"Goat's milk is white, sweet, nourishing, and easier to digest than cow's milk," it was reported without an apology to the American Dairy Association.

"It contains more fat and protein. It has been found helpful for tuberculosis patients, and for persons with stomach and bowel troubles.

"Probably more people throughout the world use goat's milk than cow's milk. Those who become used to it like it better than cow's milk. Butter made from it is poor, but some of the cheeses are good."

The above from the encyclopedia should reassure those whose pennies have been collected to help feed the poor in many foreign countries who do not (poor things) have even a drop of cow's milk for their children. All they have are those funny-looking goats.

* * *

THEY NEED FOOD—While the goat is a hardy animal and is capable of survival on poor land where horses, cows and even sheep would starve to death—he cannot live on a diet of tin cans.

Goats will lick or chew anything which may contain minerals, but they do not really eat those tin cans in the rubbish pile.

Like the cow, the goat belongs to the cattle family and is a grass eater. They respond well to good food that is not too rich, and does produce four to six quarts of milk a day in certain months.

Original purchase price of the goat is comparatively low, it is a rugged animal that needs to be cared for but not coddled, and in many countries it provides milk, leather, valuable angora wool, a beast of burden, and a pet.

* * *

OF LONG HISTORY — Man has long been associated with the goat in his upward path toward civilization.

Domestic goats are now found throughout the world and are thought to come from the wild Persian goats of southwestern Asia.

The Old Testament contains many references to goats, a relative of the sheep. Countries that have been the site of ancint civilizations—Iran, Turkey, India, Greece, Egypt—still have goat-raising peoples.

One derogatory statement about the goat is true. The billy or buck has an unpleasant odor for several months of the year. In fact he stinks so bad that he must be kept separate from the milking does — or the milk will take on his disagreeable odor.

The Doctor Says...

Physicians Don't Lack Compassion; Can't Let Emotion Color Judgment

BY EDWIN P. JORDAN, M. D. — Written for NEA Service

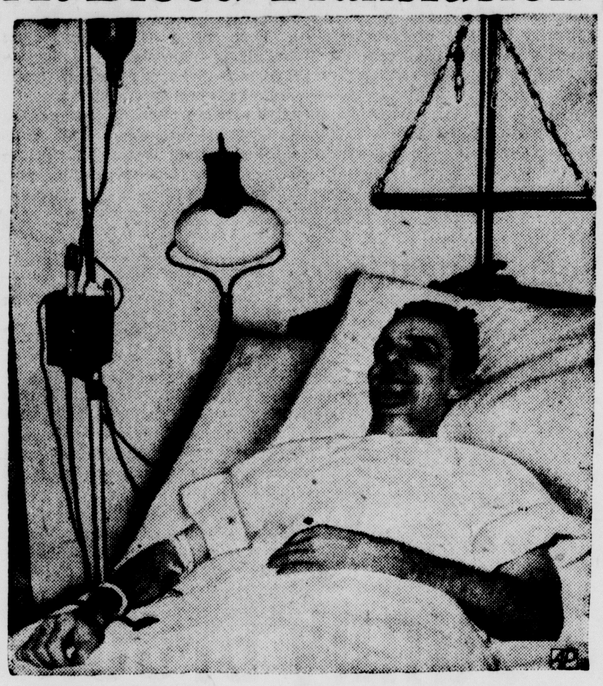

Today's first letter raises an important question.

Q—When you discussed habit spasm in a child, why didn't you suggest that the parents visit a psychiatrist or a psychologist? There may be something in the parents' attitudes or home environment, such as lack of lovingness or too high standards, that is effecting the child. In this day, when even the lay person is aware of proper emotional nutrition, it seems to me that you are guilty of gross negligence. A little more compassion in your heart, which would eventually reflect in your column, might gain you more readers.—J. S.

A—The writer of this letter has a point. It is indeed possible that a child with habit spasm is suffering from some maladjustment at home and it is also possible that the parents could be taught to recognize what is wrong and correct it with the help of a psychiatrist. The charge of gross negligence, however, is denied, since it is not the function of this column to give specific service.

Finally, I should like to say a word about human compassion. This fine quality of human beings is not lacking in doctors—far from it. However, in dealing with sick people hour after hour and day after day, a doctor simply cannot allow himself the constant expression of compassion, which others do from time to time, or he would lose his mind. Furthermore, it is agreed from long experience that a doctor's compassion is best shown in the use of judgment based on his training, and too large an emotional factor may seriously influence his judgment. It is for this reason that it is considered inadvisable for doctors to take care of members of their own immediate family in any serious illness.

Electric Eye Watches At Blood Transfusion

AP Newsfeatures

COVINGTON, Ky.—John Brick, 38, has been able to move only his arms and head for the past 12 years, but his brain has been working overtime.

The victim of arthritis has just completed an electric eye device which some physicians say will have an important part in cases where blood transfusions are necessary.

Invents Transfusion Aid

Brick, a patient at St. Elizabeth hospital, has invented a device which flashes the signal light over a patient's room when the transfusion stops before completion.

Ocassionally the flow of blood will stop during a transfusion, Brock said he noted from his own experience. His invention, for which a patent is being asked, provides that an electric eye flash the room light on when such a thing occurs. Often a patient is too weak to signal the nurse, Brick said.

Studied Electronics

He did not just begin on the invention when the idea took form. He was not equipped to do so. So he put in some of his time studying electronics and the functions of radio and television sets.

He earned a living repairing radio and television sets even though confined to the hospital. Between times, he worked on his invention.

His next project, he said, is development of an idea for diagnosis of heart conditions.

Brick has high hopes, too, of walking again.

Minister Helped

He gained the interest some time ago of the Rev. Morris Coers, pastor of a Baptist church here, whose radio and television shows have brought help to many sick, crippled and needy.

Since then, a surgeon has removed Brick's hip joints and replaced them with stainless steel cups. Now he is able to set up in a wheel chair part of the day. He believes he will walk soon.

Burmese Chickens Are Not Healthy

ROME— (AP) —Chickens in Burma need vitamin pills to survive, a United Nations expert says.

Ian W. Kelton, Food and Agricultural Organization veterinarian, has found that the high mortality rate among fowl in that country and a generally run-down condition among survivors are due to a lack of vitamin content in the poultry diet.

He said that "it appears that fear of contagious diseases and of parasitic infestation keeps the birds in small runs which contain no natural feedstuff." The birds should spread out and forage for food.

'Acting' Sheriffs Make Real Pinch

BELLE FOURCHE, S. D.—(AP) —Two high school boys who served as "sheriffs" during American Legion Government Day got a taste of the real thing.

Marvin Fenton and Dan West were given a deputy sheriff's car and a "pickup" order for three Faith residents. The two youths made the "arrests."

When they returned to the county jail with the trio, they were surprised to learn their "prisoners" were actually wanted. They were accused of failing to pay a cafe bill.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Laws, 209 Okemos Street, Mason, Michigan, reports quick relief from stomach troubles and gas with O-JIB-WA BITTERS.

"My wife and I have suffered many years with indigestion, heartburn and bloating, and everything we ate seemed to turn to gas. Many times I would bloat up so bad I could hardly breath and was in distress for hours after a meal. My wife was always complaining of heartburn, and it seemed that one of us was ailing all of the time. We heard about O-JIB-WA BITTERS and the wonderful medicine it is, but like many people, just put off trying it. After several real bad spells though, we got a bottle right away and started taking it. Results were quick in coming, for within a week, we both were feeling a great deal better. O-JIB-WA BITTERS has really done away with our gas and indigestion. We are both feeling 100% better and are glad that we can say that O-JIB-WA BITTERS is what helped us." O-JIB-WA is available in all leading Michigan drug stores.

A-Bomb Flashes At Yucca Flat

Scores of persons from hotel rooftops and lawns saw the light flash white across the cloudy sky and then dim to a ruddy hue.

Buildings in this resort city, 75 miles from the test area, became plainly visible for a moment as though from "white sunlight."

The flash, occurring at 5:15 a. m., Pacific Daylight Time (7:15 a. m. Eastern Standard Time), appeared as a "quick blink" in Los Angeles, 250 miles away.

An atomic cloud became visible above the mountains between here and Yucca Flat, but it disappeared quickly.

There were no apparent effects from the blast here. No shock was felt and there was no sound.

Eleven residents of Groom Mine, 20 miles northeast of the firing area, were moved out last night. They won't return until radiation monitoring crews report the mine area safe.

Claims For Jobless Compensation Take Drop In Michigan

DETROIT—(AP)— Jobless compensation claims in Michigan nosedived to 49,197 last week compared to 124,276 in January when unemployment in the state caused national concern.

Reporting this today, the Michigan employment security commission said prospects are bright for a further drop in unemployment barring any lengthy oil or steel strikes.

Unemployment benefit claims in Detroit dropped 1,250 last week bringing the total to 20,938 compared with 63,573 in January.

It was the smallest number of jobless receiving compensation at any time during the last year but the MESC said 27,000 Michigan workers exhaused their benefit claims in the first four months of the year.

Higher production schedules in the auto industry at the end of the first quarter this year were cited for the improved employment figures.

He asserted the convicts still were going to blow up the place.

"I'll stake my life on it," Young said in predicting another revolt.

Young boasted he played the major role in the riot although the three ringleaders have been identified as Earl Ward, Crazy Jack Hyatt and James W. Hudson. They have been transferred to separate county jails as a security measure.

Young said the riot was planned six months ago.

Wall Street

By RADAR WINGET

NEW YORK — (AP) — Oils and rails combined today to push the stock market ahead.

Outside of those two divisions there wasn't much strength, and many of the major groups remained pretty thoroughly mixed.

Prices reached ahead by as much as 3 points among active issues with the bulk of the rise in the range of fractions to between 1 and 2 points.

Plenty of losses were scattered about, and many leaders held unchanged.

Steels were unchanged to higher as were most of the motors, rubbers, non-ferrous metals, aircrafts, chemicals and utilities.

Atlantic refining was an early higher feature, trading most of the time with a gain of between 1 and 2 points, reflecting its higher divident payment announced yesterday.

Also ahead were Santa Fe, Union Pacific, Bethlehem Steel, Chrysler, Goodyear, Union Carbide, Phelps Dodge and United Aircraft.

A block of 4,400 shares of Corn Products traded off 3-4 at 68 early in the session.

New York & Harlem Railroad, controlled by the New York Central, traded in a ten-share lot up 4 at 400, which is 50 points above its low for the year. It moves widely because of the thin market created by a small floating supply of stock.

Curb stocks tilted a little to the higher side. Getting ahead were Molybdenum, Ogden Corp., Segal Lock, and Woodley Petroleum.

Steel Dispute Dickers Secret

PHILADELPHIA — (AP) — The policy making committee of the CIO United Steelworkers take up the steel dispute at a closed session today.

Union President Philip Murray, two other top union officials and 33 district directors from all over the country get together at a meeting of the USW's executive board. Conclusions arrived at by the board usually remain secret until acted upon by the union's 170-man wage-policy committee or a general convention.

The USW holds its regular biennial convention in Philadelphia beginning next Tuesday. Vice President Alben W. Barkley has tentatively agreed to address some 3,000 delegates who are expected to attend. The convention will probably last until the end of the week.

Murray has indicated "all developments" of the steel dispute will be reported to the convention.

Boy, 14, Admits Fatal Shooting And Stabbing Of His Companion, 13

HARRISBURG, Pa.—(AP)—Fourteen-year-old John Sarver II was lodged in the children's detention home here today in the fatal shooting and stabbing of a 13-year-old companion.

District Attorney Huette F. Dowling said charges would be filed tomorrow. He did not specify what they would contain.

Sarver was taken into custody yesterday, Dowling said after he admitted "accidentally" shooting Kenneth Teacher Jr., and then disemboweling him with a machete.

Dowling said Sarver told him he became "scared" after the shooting Monday night and plunged the big knife into Teacher's abdomen to disguise the bullet wound from a .22 calibre rifle.

The death took place on the northeast outskirts of Harrisburg less than two miles from where the boys lived.

Coroner Thomas J. Fritchey said an autospy showed that 19 inches of intestine was cut from Teacher's abdomen and "pulled out by hand." Death could have been caused, he said, either by the bullet or stab wound.

Let Convicts Practice Breaking Glass, Says Letter To Governor

LANSING — (AP) — Governor Williams today as petitioned to lease the Hotel Hayes in Jackson "for the under-privileged and misunderstood prisoners of Southern Michigan prison to use while their playhouse is being reconstructed."

The petition, signed by 75 residents of Springport, Albion, Eaton Rapids and Lansing, was addressed to Governor Williams but delivered to the office of Speaker of the House Victor A. Knox (R-Sault Ste. Marie).

It suggested also that the inmates be given "ball bats and other recreational equipment so they can knock out windows as they see fit. The taxpayers should also rent a greenhouse so that the prisoners can keep in practice at smashing windows."

Lost Flier Who Lived In Church Belfry Gets Air Force Discharge

TRAVIS AIR FORCE BASE, Calif.—(AP)—Second Lt. Clarence B. Wigley Jr., a B-29 pilot who lived in a church belfry several weeks, has been issued an Air Force discharge "under conditions other than honorable."

The Air Force said yesterday he was permitted to resign in lieu of a court martial on deserttion charges. He was paroled to his father, Clarence B. Wigley Sr., Wichita Falls, Tex.

The ex-flier, arrested last week, said he was the "phantom" of the Vallejo, Calif., Seventh-Day Adventist Church belfry, who unlocked doors and removed food and dishes.

Wigley's discharge is a type without the penalty of a dishonorable separation, but without the privileges of an honorable one.

Ruling Against Tax On Gamblers To Get Supreme Court Test

PHILADELPHIA — (AP) — A federal judge's ruling that the six-month-old law requiring gamblers to purchase a $50 tax stamp is unconstitutional appears due for a supreme court test.

The law, which also requires gamblers to list all personnel in their employ, was declared illegal yesterday by U. S. District Judge George A. Welsh, on the grounds that it requires an individual to be a witness against himself.

In rendering his decision, the judge said he was not ruling on that section of the law which requires gamblers to pay a ten per cent levy on the bets they handle.

Welsh commented that his decision would probably be appealed to the Supreme Court.

Later in Washington, justice department officials were reported planning an early appeal.

The specific case involved was that of Joseph Kahriger, 36, one of seven men facing trial here on charges of failing to buy the stamp.

Rock

Mrs. Arvo Rivers of Maynard, who for the past week has been visiting with friends in Rock, while staying at the home of her mother, Mrs. Sander Hakki, left today to join her husband in Chicago. Mr. and Mrs. Rivers are formerly of Rock and during their residence here Mr. Rivers was employed as manager at the Rock Co-op Co. The couple are en route to Berkeley, Calif., to visit their son, Leslie Rivers, and his family.

Mrs. Clarence Larson, who has been a medical patient at the St. Francis Hospital since Sunday, May 4, returned home Tuesday afternoon.

Miss Evelyn Hill returned to Detroit Sunday after spending the weekend at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Emil Hill.

WHO WAS FIRST?

It is not definitely known who first propelled a boat by steam power. To Robert Fulton belongs the distinction of having built the first successful steamboat, The Clermont, in 1807.

Attack On U. S. Could Come Within 2 Years, Says Gen. Vandenberg

By EDWIN B. HAAKINSON

WASHINGTON — (AP) — Air Force Gen. Hoyt S. Vandenberg told Senators today that within two years Soviet Russia "will possess the means of launching against this country a long-range atomic attack."

"Unless effectively opposed and countered, this attack could neutralize our own ability to retaliate and at the same time could seriously cripple certain key centers of the industrial productivity upon which we depend for ultimate victory in war," the General said.

The Air Force commander joined other Pentagon top brass and civilian secretaries in protesting House-approved slashes in defense spending during the next fiscal year, starting July 1.

The House voted to limit actual military spending in the new fiscal year to not more than 46 billion dollars, some six billions under present plans. Most of this would apply to the billions Congress has voted for defense in the past two or three years.

It also ordered a 4½ billion dollar slash in new funds asked.

Vandenberg's prepared testimony, delivered behind closed-doors of a Senate appropriations subcommittee considering new money bills for the defense department, was handed to reporters in advance.

Because the Air Force chief was entering doctors hospital for surgery, his vice chief of staff, Gen. Nathan F. Twining, arranged to read his statement to the subcommittee. The nature of Vandenberg's ailment was not disclosed but officers said the operation would be exploratory to determine the source of severe pain.

Better Lesson Learned

Vandenberg's statement said that, while this country has been "stretching out and whittling down our air power," the Soviet Union has been building up and expanding her combat air forces.

Even so, Vandenberg said, the United States still has a slight superiority because of "our long-range bomber force, combined with our national advantage in atomic weapons."

By 1954, the Air Force head said "control of the air, with all that implies, will then be within the grasp of the Soviet Union."

Vandenberg said the House restrictions would delay delivery of about 3,000 modern aircraft between next Jan. 1 and the middle of 1954 "when according to all reasonable estimates this nation will arrive at a point of grave danger."

"That the cost of controlling the air is high, we have discovered to our dismay," he continued. "But what we apparently are forgetting is the bitter lesson learned by Germany and Japan in the last war—and that is the immeasurably greater cost of losing control of the air."

territory. Others threatened suicide rather than return.

Maj. Gen. Bryan L. Milburn, in charge of prisoners, said:

"We tried to return every one of the 170,000 prisoners we hold unless they had an honest fear of returning to Communist control."

Nothing To Offer

But in five days of intervening by a crew of 200, only 70,000 prisoners of war and civilians said they would not forcibly oppose return to North Korea or Red China.

The Allied package provided for neutral interviews of all unreturned prisoners after an armistice. Communist observers would be present. Anyone who then said he was willing to be repatriated would be returned promptly to the Communists, Ridgway said.

Nearly 40,000 of the 170,000 are South Koreans on whom the Reds now make no claim.

The Allies say they won't force anyone to return. The Reds say this violates the Geneva convention.

At Wednesday's negotiating session the Communists restated their views at length, an Allied communique said. And Vice Adm. C. Turner Joy, chief U. N. delegate replied:

"Our position is clear, final and irrevocable. The issues are thoroughly understood and it is pointless to debate them further. "Unless you have something new to offer, I propose we recess until such time as you desire to meet again."

The Reds had nothing new to offer but North Korean Gen. Nam Il asked for another meeting Thursday — without the veil of secrecy.

Oil Strikers Will Meet With WSB

hearings under way.

No Auto Rationing

If the strike continues to threaten oil supplies needed by armed forces, the president could set up a fact-finding board as the first step toward an 80-day no-strike injunction under the Taft-Hartley act.

As the strike entered its eighth day today with oil refining capacity reduced by a third, the effects were becoming more serious.

Military aviation has been curtailed and a 30 per cent reduction in aviation gasoline supplies for commercial and private flyers was ordered.

Trans-world Airlines embargoed all air freight except emengency materials.

Secretary of the Interion Chapman reiterated there will be no rationing of motor gasoline, however.

Farm Boy's Paintings Win Gold And Glory

BOY'S PAINTINGS on display in Rome art gallery.

By JACK BRUSINI
AP Newsfeatures

ROME—Severino Guidi, an 11-year-old farm boy who likes to paint beetles, is winning critical raves in Italian art circles.

Even better, it pays.

Paintings and drawings that young Severino and his followers have produced sold well in a Rome show. They also brought nods of approval and words of praise from noted elder artists, among them writer-painter Carlo Levi.

Started in Rural School

It all started in a rural postwar school, between the Apennines, the Po River and the Adriatic. It is a tiny pink building with red tiles and green windows, where the children arrive after walking for miles between hedges full of flowers and beetles.

Through a Child's Eyes

One day Enrico Raggi, a 9-year-old child in third grade, wrote, "When I come to school from my home and walk among the hedges in blossom I often stop, I could almost laugh . . . so beautiful the colors are."

The teacher, Federico Moroni, asked the class: "Why don't you try to paint the colors?"

They did. It was fun—and everyone of the 10 pupils developed different talents. Severino Guidi, one of the eldest in the classroom, developed a taste for elaborate designs, mostly plants, snails, and beetles.

One of his paintings which attracted most attention in the show in Rome was entitled "The Dead Lizard." It represented the green body of a lizard, surrounded by hundreds of different kinds of beetles. A scene he had seen in a ditch near the school, Severino explained.

During his summer vacations, Moroni came to Rome with a small suitcase and a large roll containing the drawings and paintings of his pupils. The galleries turned him down, but the Chiurazzi Art Gallery accepted the paintings.

The director of the painting section, New York born Antonio Virduzo, organized the show. Artists and tourists flocked in to visit the exhibits. The show later moved to Florence, where a fresh bunch of paintings were on display.

Moroni will never have to worry again about getting enough watercolors, brushes, and paper for his pupils. Of the original 78 paintings, 50 were sold in the first week of show in Rome.

Shooting In Europe Ended 7 Years Ago

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK— (AP) —Seven years ago this week the guns ceased fire in Europe, and a way of life they never wanted ended for millions of Americans.

It was the way of war.

The news had been expected along the front for days, the linkup of the American and Russian forces along the Elbe river had made a German surrender only a formality.

HAL BOYLE

But when word of the final surrender did come it raced through the battle lines like a surf of joy.

Yet in the hour of victory there was a strange lack of wild elation among the combat troops. They had fought too long and too hard for this moment, and they were overtired.

And in most soldiers' hearts there was this worry:

"Hitler is down, but Hirohito is still to go. Will I have to go to Japan now?"

No Yen For Travel

It is no criticism of the courage of these troops to say that most of them had no enthusiasm for a long journey to the Far East and more fighting there. They felt that Europe had been their war and they had won it. They had lost many friends along the march from Normandy to the Elbe. All they wanted was to go back home and pick up the life they had left behand—to be again as they had been before.

It was this feeling—the doubt as to whether they would be ticketed to the U. S. A. or Japan—that accounted for the little general jubilation over the end of the European war.

I remember that night . . . Cigarette butts glowing and dying like fireflies in the lips of men stretched flat on their backs and staring up at the sky and thinking long, long thoughts of those away.

Already this mighty army, its task done, was beginning to disintegrate. The men no longer were thinking of the common goal ahead—a river to be crossed, a ridge mass to be stormed and taken.

Once its goal is gone, an army is gone. The breakup of the vast American fighting machine began that night of victory seven years ago in Europe.

Who's Hitler?

The army came home, disbanded, and built more homes and families and had more children than any army in history.

"What did you do in the last war, Daddy?" asks a small son of one of these combat veterans.

And today—seven years later—Daddy looks at the puzzling picture in Europe, scratches his head, and wonders himself.

"Well, I whipped Hitler," he finally ventures.

"Who's Hitler?" demands his small son.

'Ordinary Bandits' Surrender To Police

JAKARTA, Indonesia —(AP)— Several groups of armed outlaws, totalling 192 men, have given themselves up to authorities in the rice district of West Java, according to police reports.

The report said they did not belong to any political combat group but were "ordinary bandits" who had operated in the area since before World War II.

A FINE LITTER of good strong pigs means the sow has been fed right. And it means good care and feeding are necessary to turn the young pigs into a profit. "My pigs and cows really go for the top quality minerals Ed Sletten told me about," says James Sweeney of Larimore.

"We're glad Peavey spent the time and money to develop a mineral that makes up for the phosphorus deficiency that used to hold back our livestock.

"This is Ed's twenty-second year as our Peavey Elevator manager, and he's always ready with helpful feeding advice. I'm a grain farmer, but I believe in raising some livestock, too, just in case crop conditions should get worse than usual.

Pulitzer Prize Won By 'Caine Mutiny'

NEW YORK—(AP)—His novel of the wartime navy, "The Caine Mutiny," has brought Herman Wouk the annual Pulitzer prize for fiction.

The stage drama award has gone to Joseph Kramm for his play, "The Shrike," a story of an estranged husband and wife set in the pshchiatric ward of a city hospital.

In the newspaper field, the St. Louis Post-Dispatch's exposure of corruption in the Internal Revenue department has won that daily its fifth Pulitzer prize, the most awarded to a single newspaper.

John M. Hightower, foreign affairs reporter of The Associated Press, received the annual prize for international reporting for "The sustained quality of his coverage of news of international affairs" during 1951.

Five For Post-Dispatch

Selections for the 1952 Pulitzer awards were announced by trustees of Columbia University. The awards in various fields of creative endeavor were established by Joseph Pulitzer, the late publisher, in a bequest to Columbia.

Pulitzer founded the Post-Dispatch, which won prizes in 1937, 1941, 1948 and 1950. The five citations of the St. Louis paper were for meritorious public service.

The San Francisco Chronicle's George De Carvalho was cited for local reporting for his stories of a "Ransom Racket" extorting money from Chinese in America who had relations in Communist China.

The Chronicle credited The Associated Press with an assist for De Carvalho's prize: "The Pulitzer-winning story had its origin in an item carried by The Associated Press out of San Jose (Calif.) reporting a ransom payment by a Chinese in that city." The information in the A. P. story, which inspired the Chronicle to search San Francisco's big Chinatown for similar payments, was provided by the San Jose Mercury News.

Drake Pictures Cited

Anthony Leviero, of the New York Times, was awarded the prize for national reporting. Leviero wrote an exclusive report on discussions between President Truman and Gen. Douglas MacArthur at Wake Island during their 1950 conference. It was published April 21, 1951, shortly after Truman ousted the general as Far Eastern commander.

Cited for the editorial writing award was Louis La Coss, of the St. Louis Globe-Democrat, on the basis of his editorial entitled, "The Low State of Public Morals." It dealt with the West Point cheating scandals, the basketball fixes, the exposures of government corruption, and the U. S. Senate crime committee hearings.

Truman In Cartoon

Fred L. Packer, of the New York Daily Miror, was named top cartoonist for his "Your Editors Ought to Have More Sense That to Print What I say," a cartoon showing an irate President Truman talking to Washington newsmen. The occasion was Truman's denunciation of newsmen for printing certain military stories and photos which, it later turned out, actually had been released by the President and various government agencies.

In history, the prize went to Oscar Handlin, an associate professor at Harvard University, for his "The Uprooted." It is the epic story of migrations to America.

The biography award went to Merlo J. Pusey for "Charles Evans Hughes," a study of the late chief justice. Pusey is associate editor of the Washington Post.

"Collected Poems" won the poetry prize for Marianne Moore, a native of St. Louis but now a resident of Brooklyn.

"Symphony Concertante" brought the music award to Gail Kubik, musical adviser and staff composer of the National Broadcasting Co.

Two special citations were awarded this year: To the Kansas City Star, and to Max Kase, sports editor of the New York Journal-American.

Editorial planning, organization and execution of news coverage of the 1951 floods in Kansas and Missouri rated the citation for the Star. Kase was honored for his exposure of bribery and corruption in basketball.

Worth $1,000 Each

James N. Wines, 19, of Townson, Md., was adjudged the most promising and deserving art student. Wines, now at the Syracuse University School of Art, won a $1,500 travelling scholarship. He is a native of Oak Park, Ill.

Awards announced yesterday were the 35th annual Pulitzer prizes. They were for this year but covered work completed or published last year.

Pulitzer, who published the old New York World as well as The Post Dispatch, left 2½ million dollars to Columbia to establish the awards for excellence in arts, letters and journalism.

For the first time this year, individual prizes in journalism were worth $1,000 apiece. Individual awards in the fields of arts and letters remained at $500 each. Winning newspapers receive gold placques.

School In Reverse; Classes In Summer

MORGANTON, N. C.—(AP)—Here in the foothills of the Blue Ridge Mountains the Jonas Ridge School has just ended its "summer" vacation and started the new term.

There are two reasons why they turn the clock around. The hazardous winter weather makes mountain traveling difficult for the children. The winter vacation also gives them a chance to make some money by picking galax, a wild plant whose big, tough leaves are used for Christmas decorations.

The school begins its work soon after spring starts, and closes when winter arrives. The 125 students and four teachers hold classes in a modern, stone building.

Lost 35 Lbs. REDUCE With Rennel

"Three months ago I started to use Rennel Concentrate and with it lost 35 pounds," writes Mrs. Ada Scott, 1355 Norfolk, Willow Run, Mich. "I eat quite normally, just a little less on starches, sweets and fatty foods. Now I look and feel so much better and can get around and do my work more easily. Being only 33 years old I am thankful for Rennel Concentrate and recommend it to all friends."

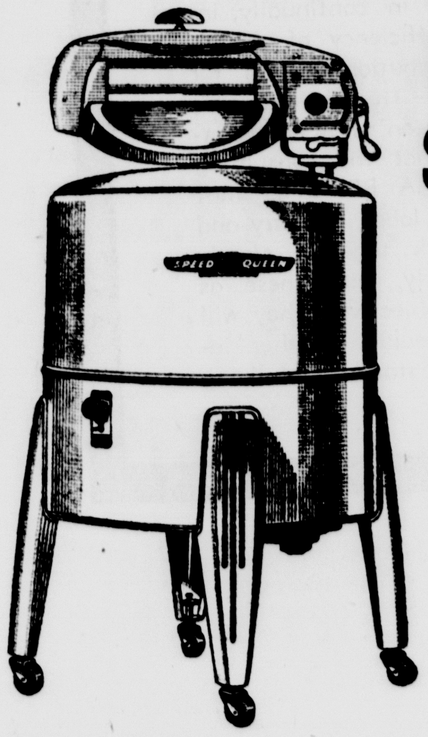

It's amazing how quickly you can lose unsightly fat at home. Obtain liquid Rennel at your druggist, mix with grapefruit juice as directed and take two tablespoonfuls twice a day. That's all there is to it. If you do not lose weight with the very first bottle just return it for your money back. You need never know a hungry moment while reducing with Rennel.

In normal times, about 90 million tons of goods are transported along the Rhine River every year.

AMERICA'S FOREMOST IGA FOOD STORES INDEPENDENT GROUP!

IGA BELIEVES

in the system of free and independent enterprise ... the backbone of our great nation ... because America must keep open wide the door of opportunity for its boys and girls to have businesses of their own. It has and always will, strive to preserve small business. IGA BELIEVES in maintaining a stable income for the farmer, good wages for labor and fair profits for industry, because our nation can have sound economy only when all three factors prosper. IGA BELIEVES in continually increasing the efficiency of America's food distribution system for the purpose of steadily reducing the spread between what the farmer gets and what the consuming public pays. IGA BELIEVES that when producers, labor, industry and distributors work together closely and harmoniously, with these as their common objectives, they will help a great deal to further increase the high standard of living in our country.

HOW CAN WE DO IT?

How can we sell everything at such low prices you ask. The answer is simple ... IGA unites major units of food distribution: The INDEPENDENT RETAILER in your community, the INDEPENDENT WHOLESALER, the MANUFACTURER, the FARMER and YOU. All work together in a well-knit, smoothly running organization. With operating costs as low or lower than those of any other system in the food industry today, plus the combined purchasing power of thousands of stores, IGA stores can sell at these low prices EVERY DAY in the WEEK, WEEK IN AND WEEK OUT.

WHAT IS IGA?

IGA stands for INDEPENDENT GROCERS' ALLIANCE . . . America's foremost group of independently owned and operated food stores. The IGA movement, started in 1926, now extends from coast to coast with over 10,000 stores in 43 states . . . all working to bring the housewives of America better foods at lower prices.

Rock Seniors Enjoy Skip Day Trip

Fair weather accompanied the Rock Senior Class on their Skip Day, which took them as far as the Canadian Soo.

Their first stop on Friday, May 2 was at Pictured Rocks in Munising where they enjoyed a picnic lunch. Newberry was their next destination. Upon arrival at the State Hospital there the group was taken on a conducted tour of the hospital by a social worker. In addition to visiting the different hobby shops, kitchen, operating room, etc., the class also was present at a dance which was well attended by hospital patients. Thanking the social worker for the very interesting and informative tour the boys and girls boarded the bus once again and continued on their way. They arrived in Sault Ste. Marie at 5:30 p.m. where they checked into the Hotel Ojibway overlooking the Soo Locks. After supper and shopping the boys and girls and chaperons attended a show.

9:00 a. m. Saturday found the group on a tour of Camp Lucas situated just outside of Sault Ste. Marie. Capt. G. O. Woodham, Public Information Officer, gave an interesting and detailed account of all the aspects of army life at this particular camp as he conducted the seniors through all the different barracks.

Army restrictions prevented the class from a tour through the locks so the next best thing was a ferry boat ride to the Canadian Soo. A couple hours later, foot sore and weary, the group left Sault Ste. Marie and drove to St. Ignace. After a belated dinner everyone settled down again for the trip home. On the way brief stops were made at Cut River Bridge and Rapid River. A very enjoyable time was had by all nineteen who made the trip.

Bethany Aid May Meeting Thursday

The Ladies' Aid society of Bethany Lutheran church will hold its May meeting on Thursday, at 2:30 p. m.

Captain Louis Thompson of the Salvation Army will be the speaker of the afternoon. Elaine Anderson and Joan Nelson accompanied by Ann Aronson will sing a duet, and Joan Nelson will play a flute solo. Hostesses are Mrs. George Bergman, Mrs. John Gustafson and Mrs. Arthur Aronson.

A bake sale will be held in connection with the meeting.

When you are buying a tube pan for angel, sponge, or chiffon cake make sure that the tube is taller than the pan sides so it will keep the top of the cake from touching the table when it is inverted for cooling. See also that the tube is wide enough to support the pan, or that there are legs on the pan for this purpose. The bottoms to tube pans may be loose or solid.

Club Names Officers, Hears Travelogue By Lucille Gessner

The Escanaba Business and Professional Woman's Club at its dinner meeting last night at the Sherman Hotel re-elected Miss Phoebe Anderson R. N., president for the coming year and heard an intensely interesting and highly descriptive travelogue on Europe given by Miss Lucille Gessner, who spent the past summer abroad.

Officers named to serve with Miss Anderson are Miss Mary Newton, vice president; Miss Alice Potter, treasurer; Hazel Erickson, recording secretary; and Mrs. Al Johnson of Bark River, corresponding secretary.

Miss Gessner, introduced by Miss Josephine Ryan, chairman of the hostess committee for the evening, opened her talk with the trip across aboard the luxury liner, Queen Mary, which docked at Cherbourg and the highlights of the group's stay in Paris and tour to nearby sites of historical interest.

"The first stop," she said, "was the studio of the famous French artist, Rousseau. It was on the second floor of a very old building and Rousseau must have enjoyed the lovely view of the countryside he had there.

Beauty in Furnishings

"Going through the Chateau at Fontainebleau is something I shall always remember," she continued. "This palace is the richest in historical memories in France for it dates back to the beginning of the 12th century and Napoleon was one of the emperors who lived there. There were 2,000 rooms but, of course, we saw only those open to the public. The furnishings of each room left a deep impression on me, perhaps because everything matched and blended in color. The tapestries were magnificent and covered the length of the wall, showing years and years of hard, fine work in their making.

"The Chateau, as it is known in France, overlooked a lovely little lake—so quiet and serene as we came upon it—and in the middle was a small pavilion used for the privacy of the kings when they wanted to discuss their problems in secret or just wanted to be left alone. I thought, looking at it, that they, too, had their problems then just as our leaders in the world today."

Miss Gessner touched briefly on the shops of Paris, the night club entertainment and the sidewalk cafes, as well as other famous sites, Versailles Palace, "so tremendous in size it was startling", the Chateau of Malmaison, the Louvre, Notre Dame, the Arc de Triomphe, Napoleon's Tomb and the Montmartre.

"Berne was a wonderful change after the crowded schedule in Paris," the speaker said, as the tour moved to Switzerland. "It was so clean, but the cleaniness of the Swiss is a known fact and also a pleasure. Our first view of the Alps was as though they were hundreds of miles away and yet they were all around in every direction. From Berne we went to Interlaken, a small resort town, and there you felt as though you could almost walk up and touch the mountains."

She told in detail of the trip by mountain train up the Jungfrau, and stops at Montreux, and Geneva, where they visited the League of Nations building. "The flowers in Switzerland are unbelievably beautiful, they are so large and colorful," she said, "and, best of all, they are everywhere you look. As for the scenery I cannot say enough for it. It really is breathtaking, especially going through the mountains with the blue water shimmering below."

Miss Gessner continued with pertinent comments on Nice and the French Riveria which her party visited before going to Italy for three weeks.

Rome in Three Divisions

"Rome," she said, "is divided into three parts, the medieval, the modern and Vatican City, and each has its own points of interest. Volumes have been written about what to see in Rome and this city, like Paris, needs weeks to go about and see things as they should be seen. We saw St. Peter's Cathedral and the Vatican Museum and each require a description of its own, particularly the magnificient beauty of St. Peter's. Rome is the art lover's paradise. Museum after museum is filled with famous paintings and sculptures. We attended the opera in Rome and heard La Traviata. The setting for the summer opera was perfect. Italians, rich and poor alike, go to the opera like we go to the movies here and it is nothing for them to take the entire family including the children. Consequently they learn their music very young and very well."

Miss Gessner spoke briefly on Sorrento, the Island of Capri, Florence, Venice with its gondolas and St. Mark's Square where everyone feeds the pigeons and Milan and described in detail the characteristics of the Italian countryside. Speaking of Holland, as the tour continued from Lucerne to Brussells and Belgium and on to the Hague, she paid tribute to the people of the little country.

"We saw miles and miles of flowers, all kinds, and a million are shipped out every day for export to all parts of the world. The Dutch people are to be admired and commended for what they did to clean up their country and put it back in shape for after the Germans left they were afraid they would never raise another flower or crop again. They didn't wait for anyone to come and help them, but rolled up their sleeves and went to work, and so, today, they have a right to be proud of their country and what they have accomplished."

The tour closed in England and Miss Gessner told of their stay in London and visit to the Shakespeare country, and other historic sites.

"An Experience to Treasure"

"I had seen the old world," she said in closing the travelogue, "and it was an experience I shall always cherish. But I do not think anything can quite compare to that feeling of coming home and seeing the Statue of Liberty, a sight to hold and keep in one's memory. for no country on earth can be compared to ours. We do not realized or appreciate the extent of our liberties because we take them for granted, but we must protect those liberties and take care of them so that the world on the other side of the ocean can continue to look to us and say, 'You have a wonderful country. You have everything in America!'"

At the club's business meeting a $25 gift to Bay Cliff in honor of Miss Elba Morse was voted and announcement made of the testimonial dinner for her to be held at Marquette May 13. Signe Nerbonne and Ethel R. Gilmore were named members of the auditing committee. Announcement was made of the state convention at the Hotel Fort Shelby in Detroit May 23-25. Installation of the club officers will be held May 27.

Guests at the dinner meeting were Miss Elizabeth Leiper and Miss Agnes Leiper of the Escanaba public school teaching staff, Mrs. Lillian Lindbohm who recently came from the Copper Country to assume the managership of Gartner's, Mrs. Elie DeDryver of Marcel Shop. Cpl. Louise Owens, WAC, U. S. Army and Air Force Recruiting Station, Escanaba, and Amy Bolger, woman's page editor of the Escanaba Daily Press.

AS WE LIVE

There Are Times When "No" Is The Answer

By Elizabeth B. Hurlock, Ph.D.

(Q) "Through marriage, I am forced to associate with a young married woman who has no respect for other people's property or rights. She is continually sponging and taking advantage of one. She constantly hints and asks for things. If you lend her anything, it is often ruined (if you ever get it back). She never does anything for anyone else. She accepts dinner invitations but is too tired or busy to return them. I would like to avoid this selfish person, but, since I want to keep harmony, how can I deal with this situation?"

(A) You can do it by taking a firm but pleasant stand. A situation like this requires not only tact but foresight enough to get the jump on the other person.

From past experience, you know that she will ask you to do something for her or to lend her something every time you see her. That means, be prepared ahead of time to say "no," whatever her request may be.

If she wants to borrow a dish, say you are using it for dinner tonight or that you are short of dishes and can't spare it. If she wants to borrow sugar or butter to make a cake, tell her you have just enough to last until the next shopping day and that you cannot run the risk of being short.

As for returning dinner invitations, that is easy to handle. Just don't ask her again until she has entertained you. That is socially correct, so you need have no feelings of guilt about it.

A person who is used to "sponging" on others as your friend is, does not take a hint easily. You may have to make your refusals many times before it finally dawns on her that you are in earnest. Remember, however, that your refusals must always be made in such a tactful manner that she has no reason whatsoever to take offense. This will solve your problem and, at the same time, maintain the harmony that you wish.

If you have a problem about family or friend, ask Dr. Hurlock to help you. Write in care of this newspaper.

Carol M. Larson Is May Bride Of Ronald Bergstrom

A background of white taffeta outlined with green fernery at the top and bottom with tall standards and vases of white snapdragons and gladiolus decorated the baptistry and platform of the First Baptist Church for the nuptials on Saturday evening of Miss Carol Marie Larson and Sgt. Ronald Milton Bergstrom. Two sets of candelabra were placed at either side of the kneeling bench and lighted tapers in each of the church windows completed the decorations. White satin bows marked the pews where the families and relatives of the bridal couple were seated.

Miss Joyce Lindahl, organist, played a medley of bridal music which included "Oh Promise Me," "I Love Thee" and "Traumuerei," and the traditional processional and recessional wedding marches. Mrs. Clifford Pryor of Iron Mountain, guest soloist, sang "Trust in Me" and "Because." As the bridal couple knelt for the final blessing, Rev. K. J. Samuelson, pastor, sang "The Lord's Prayer."

The double ring ceremony was performed by candlelight at 7:30, with Rev. K. J. Samuelson, pastor, uniting the young couple in marriage.

Before the ceremony began, Judy Oman of Rapid River, a niece of the bride, and Virgeline Johnson, of Ensign, dressed in identical white satin floorlength gowns with net overskirts and with white carnations in their hair, lit the candles.

The lovely bride was escorted up the white carpeted aisle on the arm of her uncle, Ted Larson, who gave her in marriage. Her bridal gown was fashioned of white chantilly lace over satin, with a french collar and long tapering sleeves coming to points over her hands, and many satin covered buttons extended from the neck to the waistline both in front and in back of the bodice. The full skirt with a court train was designed at the waistline with a tiny peplum. Her full length veil with fingertip blusher and ruffled veil of illusion and chantilly lace was secured with a satin crown of pearls and net. She carried a fan shaped bouquet of white snapdragons centered with a corsage of white snapdragons and white roses and tied with shower streamers of white satin ribbon and lilies of the valley. Her only jewelry was a three-strand choker of pearls, with matching earrings, the bridegroom's gift.

Miss Joyce Larson, maid of honor, was dressed in a yellow organdy and net dress with matching chantilly lace veil and elbow length gloves. She carried a colonial bouquet of orchid snapdragons centered with yellow roses. Miss Shirley Oman, a niece of the bride, wore an aqua organdy and net gown with matching chantilly lace veil and gloves and carried a colonial bouquet of yellow snapdragons and pink roses centered with yellow daffodils. Little Betty Lou Miller, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Miller, was the flower girl. She was dressed as a miniature bride and carried a quilted white satin basket filled with roses and snapdragons.

Little Freddie Wilbee, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Wilbee was the ring bearer. He was dressed in a white suit and carried the rings on a heart shaped white satin pillow. He had a boutonnaire of red rose buds in his lapel.

Neil Bergstrom served his brother as best man, and Lloyd Pryor was groomsman. Ushering were Vergne Thornberry and Del Sylvester.

Miss Margaret Larson, the bride's aunt, chose a navy blue suit with white accessories for her niece's wedding. A corsage of white carnations and red roses was pinned to her shoulder. The bridegroom's mother wore a pink dress with white accessories and a corsage of pink carnations and yellow roses.

A reception, with over 200 guests attending, was held in the church parlors immediately after the ceremony. Yellow and aqua streamers formed the decorations and wedding bells were placed in the windows. Mrs. George Wilbee and the Misses Harriet and Carol Goodman served the bridal party at the bride's table. The three tiered wedding cake was decorated with yellow and aqua roses and topped by the traditional miniature bride and groom. Mrs. Vernon Peterson and Miss Estrid Holm poured, and serving at the buffet tables were Mrs. Donald Nelson, Miss Gertrude Hagman, Mrs. Adolph Miller and Miss Mary Miller. Miss Marian Day cut the cake. The groom's cake was placed on a smaller table decorated with yellow and aqua and was cut and placed in yellow doillies and tied with aqua ribbons and presented to the guests.

The newlyweds have left for a wedding trip to an undisclosed destination. For traveling the bride chose an aqua wool jersey dress with aqua accessories and a light tan coat with black velvet trim. A corsage of white snapdragons and white roses completed her costume.

The bride is a daughter of Andrew Larson of Perkins, and has made her home with her uncle and aunt, Ted and Miss Margaret Larson, in Masonville. She attended the Rapid River schools and graduated from high school in 1947. She spent a year at Elkhart Business college, Elkhart, Ind., and is employed as a medical secretary by Dr. J. G. Halser in Milwaukee.

The bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Bergstrom of 625 Crest Avenue, Iron Mountain, and a grandsoon of Mrs. Christine Wickman, 605 Dakota avenue, Gladstone. He graduated from Kingsford High school in 1946 and is in the United States Army and stationed at Camp McCoy, Wis.

The bride will return to Milwaukee where she is employed and will reside at 2445 S. K. K. Avenue, and the groom will return to Camp McCoy.

Out-of-town guests attending the wedding were: Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Carmody, Milwaukee; Mr. and Mrs. Warren Bednarz, Escanaba; Mrs. Alice Vallier, Perkins; Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Oman, Rapid River, and Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Larson, Little Lake, all sisters and brothers-in-law of the bride; Andrew Larson, Perkins; Mrs. Leo Girard, Little Lake; Mr. and Mrs. Jay Sylvester and Del Sylvester, Milwaukee; Wilbur Oman Jr., Mrs. Rose Mecure, Mrs. Albert Miller, Rapid River; Miss Jeanette Deloria, Nahma; Mr. and Mrs. Sam Bergstrom, Mr. and Mrs. Neil Bergstrom, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Pryor, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Gaynon, Mr. and Mrs. Vergne Thornberry, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Marcellis, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Leaf, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Marcellis and Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Swanson, Iron Mountain; Mr. and Mrs. Carl Bergstrom, Flint; Miss Joyce Larson, and Jerry Onufrock, Chicago; Mrs. Peter Jungles, Escanaba; Mr. and Mrs. Walter O'Brien and Mrs. Marie Oak, Detroit.

Check Pupils At Clinic Monday

Fifty-nine kindergarten pupils of a total enrollment of 88 were examined at a clinic held Monday in the Central and Buckeye schools by Dr. Wm. L. Harrison, head of the Delta-Menominee Health Unit, assisted by Miss Charlotte Nelson, school nurse, and a group of six senior girls.

Weight and height of the children was checked and examination made for infected tonsils and adenoids and recommendations were sent to parents. Immunization work to be done also was determined.

Nearly all children examined were in need of dental care, it was stated. Seventeen already had been to a dentist.

'Black Light' Chalk Drawing Highlights Evangelistic Service

A "black-light" chalk drawing by the Rev. Tedford Rasmussen, of Iron Mountain, was a special feature of the evangelistic service at the Seventh-day Adventist Church Sunday evening.

Rev. Rasmussen sketched his picture, a lighthouse sending forth its guiding rays across a stormy sea, in an auditorium lighted only by his own special florescent lamp. While drawing, Mr. Rasmussen told the story of how P. P. Bilss was inspired to compose the hymn, "Let the Lower Lights be Burning." The Rev. Reo Clyde sang this hymn when the florescent lamp was turned over leaving visible only the glowing rays of the lighthouse.

The Rev. Alonzo R. Mohr, of Escanaba, delivered the evening message on the topic "God or Gorilla."

"What it Means to Get Ready" will be the subject of next Sunday evenings meeting, according to Rev. Clyde. A special feature of this meeting will be a half hour vibraharp concert by Mrs. Pearl Ilson St. Clair, piano and organ instructor of Escanaba.

Eskymo Grid, Cage Coaches Are Hired By School Board

Two head coaching vacancies at Escanaba High School were filled last night at a meeting of the Board of Education with Burton Gustafson of the Junior High faculty and Joe Milokna, Kingsford, named to the positions.

Gustafson, Junior High football and basketball coach the past year, will take over head basketball coaching duties replacing Steve Baltic who resigned at the end of the last cage season. Milokna, who coached football and basketball at Kingsford High School last season, succeeds Jim Rouman, resigned, as the Esky football mentor.

12-Letterman

Gustafson is a graduate of Newberry High Schol where he played football and basketball, and Northern Michigan College of Education where he earned 12 varsity athletic letters in basketball, football and track.

The new Escanaba cage coach is the only Northern athlete ever to win a dozen letters. He played guard and center in basketball, end in football and ran the 440, hurdles and relay and was a high jumper in track. He earned four letters in each sport.

Gustafson graduated from Northern in 1950 and coached football, basketball and baseball at Cedarville before coming to Escanaba last year. He is married and is a veteran of two and one-half years in the Navy during War II in which he served in the Pacific theater.

Gustafson will take over basketball duties at the beginning of next season.

Ironwood Athlete

Milokna graduated from Ironwood High School where he earned letters in football and basketball. He earned his degree at Superior State Teachers College, Superior, Wis., where he won three football letters and was named all-conference center for two years.

Milokna took his Masters degree at the University of Wisconsin in Madison. He coached all sports at Ontonagon High School before moving to Kingsford last season.

At Kingsford Milokna scraped together a rebuilt football team that was the early surprise of the season in the Upper Peninsula. Starting with a mere 21 candidates, he built a formidable team that won three, lost four and tied one. Several of the defeats were by extremely close scores and the Flivvers were regarded as one of the most dangerous elevens in the Peninsula.

Milokna, who will also serve as assistant coach in basketball at the Senior High, is single and also a veteran of War II in which he flew 25 combat missions with the Air Force over Europe.

The new grid mentor will take over duties with the call for football candidates in mid-August.

Spartan Baseballers To Face Notre Dame

EAST LANSING—(AP)—The official scorer should have an easy time of it when Michigan State's baseball team takes on Notre Dame here today.

Both teams have the same trouble—weak hitting. Michigan State has a .241 team batting average and the Irish are even worse off with a .221 team average.

The Irish have a 5-5 won and lost record and MSC has a 3-4 record to date.

The rivalry dates back to 1907 and the Spartans have won 31 and lost 39 through the years. The last six meetings, however, all went to Michigan State.

Sither Don Quayle of Oxford or Tom Lawson of Detroit probably will pitch for Michigan State.

Red Tape Halts Deal For Giants-Chisox

ST. LOUIS — (AP) — Red tape prevented a player trade yesterday between the New York Giants and Chicago White Sox.

For two hours Manager Leo Durocher thought he had swapped Sal Yvars, the Giants' No. 2 catcher, to the White Sox for outfielder George Wilson and cash.

Later Durocher said the whole thing was off. He said he had obtained waivers from the National league but had failed to do so from the American. Two AL clubs claimed waivers so the waiver procedure will have to be started over again.

Yesterday's Stars

Batting—Clyde Vollmer, Red Sox—hammered two homers, a single and double in four times at bat and drove in six runs to lead the Red Sox to an 11-2 triumph over the Chicago White Sox.

Pitching—Steve Gromek, Indians—pitched the Indians to a brilliant 1-0 victory over New York and Allie Reynolds, limiting the Yankees to four scattered singles at Yankee Stadium.

Two Escanaba Keg Teams Move Into U. P. Money List

The University of Florida has been a member of the Southeastern Conference ever since that athletic group was founded in 1933.

Eskymo Netters Defeat Redmen

The Escanaba Eskymo net team gained revenge for a previous 4-2 defeat at the hands of Marquette by tripping the Redmen tennis squad at Marquette yesterday by a 4-3 margin.

Escanaba's No. 1 doubles team of Dick Noon and Dick Peterson scored an impressive victory over the crock Marquette doubles team of Bill Brumm and Evan Karabetsos. It was the first time the Marquette pair had lost a match since the same Eskymos tripped them in the opening meet last season.

Marquette won three of the singles matches with Karabetsos beating Desilets 7-5 and 6-1, Dean Benson beating Dick Moon 6-4 and 6-3, and Jim Schneider defeating Jim Timms 4-6, 6-3 and 6-3.

Tom Fisher downed Brumm 5-7, 6-4,6-4, and Dick Peterson topped Dan Bocklund 6-4 and 6-1 for Eskymo singles wins.

The Eskymos swept the doubles, Noon and Peterson beating Brumm and Karabetsos 3-6, 6-2 and 7-5 while Fisher and Desilets defeated Benson and Bocklund 6-1 and 6-3.

Booster Games To Open 1952 Action In Softball Loop

The American League version of the city softball program will get under way with Booster games slated for Sunday night, May 18, at Memorial Field diamond.

Three games will be slated for the opening night, with No Names and Power & Light starting things off at 6:30. Paper Mill will meet White Birch at 8 and the Dells and Harnischfeger clash in the nightcap starting at 9:15.

Opening game ceremonies will be presented between the first and second games.

The American League will begin play on Monday night, May 19. All teams are set and ready for action.

The situation is different in the other two Escanaba leagues, however. The National and Oldtimer leagues will begin play on either May 26 or June 2. The Oldtimers will play on either Monday or Tuesday and Friday nights each week.

The Softball Association last night expressed appreciation to Rev. A. A. Schabow, actively associated with the sport in Escanaba, who has been called to a pastorate in Wisconsin. Rev. Schabow served as secretary of the Association for two years and president for three and a half years.

The Umpire

Question: The bases are loaded with none out. The batter hits a long drive which caroms off the left fielder's mitt. The center fielder, backing up the play, catches the ball before it reaches the ground, then relays the ball to the infield.

Beans Reardon

Since all the runners broke from their bases the moment the ball touched the left fielder's mitt—and before the centerfielder had completed the catch—the shortstop ignores the runners and merely walks over to step on second and third bases, and claims a triple play.

Meanwhile, all three runners dash home. I claim the runs count. Right or wrong?

Jimmy Breslin
32-31 16th St.
Flushing, Long Island

Answer: Right. Base-runners may advance on a fly the moment a fielder touches the ball, whether he catches it or not.

Q. On Aug. 7, 1906, the Cubs won a forfeited game from the Giants. Why?

A. Manager John J. McGraw refused to allow Umpire Johnstone to enter the Polo Grounds.

Lack Of Hits Means Nothing To Linden

FLINT, Mich. —(AP)— Linden High School's baseball team got no hits in two games but won one of them and scored a run in the one it lost.

Jim Griswold of Otisville high pitched a nine-inning no hitter against Linden in the Genesee County Class C league yesterday. Otisville won 2-1. Linden scored its run on a walk, a stolen base, an infield out and an error.

Last Friday Dale Harris of Flint Hoover pitcher a seven-inning no hitter against Linden. But Linden won 2-0 on a walk and three errors.

EAST LANSING, Mich.—(AP)—University of Michigan's golf team won a 16-11 victory over Michigan State yesterday. The Wolverines took the singles 12-6 after losing the doubles 5-4. Karl Masock was low in the singles with a 74.

Davey-Vejar Winner Gets Shot At Champion Gavilan

CHICAGO — (AP)—Professional boxing's big time will be waiting off-casvas tonight for the winner of the 10-round Chicago Stadium bout between young and lusty Chico Vejar and studious Chuck Davey.

The victor of this rare match featuring two college men has been promised a shot at Kid Gavilan's welterweight championship. This would be an exceedingly rewarding vesture judging by the way the Vejar-Davey fight has caught on here.

Promoters are predicting a turnout of 10,000 fans and a gate of more than $40,000, not including proceeds derived from sale of radio and television rights. The bout will be broadcast and televised nationally (9 p. m., EST).

151 Lb. Limit

All ringside seats—4,800—are sold. They were priced at $6.75.

Vejar's manager, Steve Ellis, has obtained permission from Davey and his handlers for a 151-pound weight limit instead of the 150 pounds stipulated earlier in the International Boxing Club contract. Ellis says his 20-year-old fighter is still growing and sometimes is weakened by shedding pounds too fast.

Davey is expected to weigh in this afternoon at around the normal 147-pound welterweight limit.

Both Vejar, a freshman at New York University, and Davey, who holds two degrees from Michigan State college, are popular fighters.

Vejar is possibly the better known of the two, having made numerous eastern appearances on televisios in compiling a record of only one defeat in 42 fights. He is a fast, busy and enthusiastic brawler who swings hard and often—hard and often enough to knock out 24 opponents.

Davey got off to a much slower professional start. He fought — and won—96 amateur fights, most of them as a student at Michigan State and a member of the Spartans' boxing team. Since turning pro, he has paced himself slowly.

Beat Ex-Champ

He won 30 small purse fights and drew once. Then he bid for, and got, a match with Ike Williams, the former lightweight champion. That fight was held in Chicago six weeks ago and ended in the fifth round with Davey the victor by a technical knockout.

The victory over Williams, backed by 22 other knockouts, apparently has convinced Davey that he has something besides a southpaw attack that might confuse only less-experienced fighters.

Davey's southpaw style has been getting some thought in the Vejar camp. Chico has never fought a southpaw and he's made sure his sparring partners are all portsiders. Chico himself has a rough left. Half of his knockouts came on hooks with that hand.

Oddsmakers have favored Davey since the match was announced. Early figures ranged up to 2-1. Now they're about 6-5.

A number of Chico's backers from his home town, Stamford, Conn., as well as other eastern fans, have bought tickets for the bout. There are some rooters on hand from Detroit, Davey's home.

Tigers Good Stepping Stones

WASHINGTON — (AP) — One nice thing about the Detroit Tigers—they make good stepping stones.

Deep down in the American league cellar, the Tigers put the surging third place Washington Senators only 2½ games out of first by dropping a 5-2 decision to the Nats last night.

Ted Gray

It was the same story as in most of the Tigers 13 defeats this year. Detroit pitchers Art Houtteman and Hal White gave up seven hits altogether. The Tigers got six hits—but not in the right places.

Teddy Gray, who has one victory and three losses so far, tries to stop the Senators' five-game winning streak tonight against Sid Hudson, who has a 1-1 record.

Ex-Yankees

He'll be facing the same tough crew that chased Houtteman last night—Archie Wilson and Jackie Jensen, recently acquired by the Senators from the New Fork Yankees.

Wilson collected two hits, including a triple, to make his record 11 safe hits in four games with Washington. That's a .569 average. Jensen doubled to drive in one of the Senators' runs.

A slight bright spot for the Tigers was the fourth inning home run rookie centerfielder George Lerchen banged off Nat pitcher Conrado Marrero. It was the first major league hit for Lerchen, who spent last season at Williamsport.

Lerchen's four bagger, a solid 320-foot blow, spoiled a perfect game at that point for Marrero, who had retired 10 men in a row.

Even so, he didn't give up another hit until the sixth when Houtteman popped one into short center.

By then the Senators had given him a 5-1 lead and he could afford to relax. The Tigers' only other run came in the eighth when Jerry Priddy doubled, advanced on a fly by Lerchen and scored on George Kell's grounder.

Pinch-Hitters Fail

Pinch hitters failed to help out in two other Tiger scoring chances. In the seventh Vic Wertz struck out with two on and two out. Again in the ninth with two on and two out, Ben Taylor fanned.

The Senators collected two runs in the first. Eddy Yost doubled and scored on a wild pitch by Houtteman, who gave up four walks in the first three innings. Jensen walked and stole second, then came in on RPete Runnels' single.

Washington added three more in the fifth on Jensens double, Wilson's triple and an error by Don Kolloway. Yost reached first on the error, got to second on a passed ball and scored when Jensen doubled.

Wilson then sent Jensen home with his three-bagger and scored himself on a long fly.

White came in to relieve Houtteman in the seventh and gave up two singles. It was Houtteman's third loss this year against two wins.

Gromek Pitches Cleveland To 1-0 Victory Over Yanks

By JOE REICHLER

The veteran righthander, considered a second stringer on the Indian mound staff, pitched a neat 1-0 four-hitter in beating the Yanks and Allie Reynolds last night for the third time.

Steve Gromek

The last time Gromek started against the Yanks in Yankee stadium — May 19, 1949 — he trimmed the Bombers, 3-2. The time before that—in Cleveland in 1948—he downed the Yanks, 2-1.

Long Lapse

Gromek's shutout was the first time a Cleveland pitcher has blanked the Yanks since Bob Feller's no-hitter in April, 1946.

Steve not only handcuffed the Yanks with four singles but had the crowd of 35,914 limp at the finish when he retired the last three batters with the potential tying run on base.

The second string Indian starter wrote finis to his spectacular triumph by striking out Gene Woodling on three pitches. This is the same Woodling who hit five home runs against the Indians last year, each contributing to a victory. And this is the same Yankee team that defeated the Tribe 10 times in 11 meetings at Yankee stadium last year. Moreover, in beating Reynolds, he whipped a pitcher who thrashed the Indians five times last year, three times on shutouts, twice by a 1-0 score, and once via no-hitter.

"Credit the sinker I developed during spring training," Gromek said afterwards.

The Indians' tally off Reynolds came in the second inning. It was scored on singles by Dale Mitchell, Ray Boone and Birdie Tebbetts.

Two Homers

A pair of homers by Clyde Vollmer and another by Walter Dropo made it easy for Red Sox righthander Willard Nixon to register his first triumph.

Conrado Marrero pitched the third place Washington Senators to their fifth straight victory with a 5-2 win over Detroit. Again Jackie Jensen and Archie Wilson, obtained from the Yankees last Saturday, were the big guns on attack for the Nats. Jensen doubled, drove in a run, stole a base and scored twice. Wilson hit a single and triple, scored once and batted in a run.

Duane Pollette pitched the St. Louis Browns back into the winning column with a 5-1 triumph over the Philadelphia Athletics as Marty Marion and Clint Courtney each hit homers.

Brooklyn's Dodgers moved past New York's Giants into first place in the National league with a tenth inning 5-4 victory over the Cincinnati Reds. Andy Pafko scored the winning run in the tenth. He tripled off Ken Raffensberger and scored on a fly by Carl Furillo.

Two-Hitter

Teeing off on former teammate Max Lanier and a parade of five additional hurlers for 15 hits, Eddie Stanky's St. Louis Cardinals snapped the Giants' seven-game winning streak with a 9-4 triumph.

Robin Roberts hurled a brilliant two-hitter as the Philadelphia Phils snapped a four-game losing streak with a 6-0 victory over Pittsburgh.

Johnny Klippstein pitched the Chicago Cubs to a three-hit 2-0 shutout over the Boston Braves in the only game played in daylight.

The Cubs scored their runs off loser Vern Bickford in the fifth on a triple by Ransom Jackson, a double by Dee Fondy and a single by Klippstein. Klippstein has won only 10 games in the majors and half of them were gained at the expense of the Braves.

First Negro On Spartan Baseball Varsity Team

EAST LANSING, Mich.—(AP)—Flint has contributed a host of outstanding Negro track and football stars to Michigan State college in the past few years.

Now the first Negro baseball player ever to make the Spartan varsity lineup is a Flint freshman who has Coach John Kobs more than enthused.

The newcomer is Stan Turner, a first term freshman from Flint Northern. Turner, the string bean type, weighs 170 pounds and is six-foot-one-inch tall.

He's a fielding shortstop and has a powerfully accurate throwing arm. Turner also is a good left-handed hitter and is expected to see regular action this week as Kobs has been juggling his lineup looking for hitting strength.

Turner made his first appearance as a pinch hitter against Iowa over the weekend but grounded out.

Gordy Serr, who had the rough assignment of taking over All-American Don Coleman's position at tackle, is a good example of a small town boy making good.

Coach Biggie Munn prides himself on the number of boys from the small high schools that prove themselves onthe varsity. Serr's home town of Corunna, Caledonia township, Shiawassee county, with a population of 2,016, is one of the smaller of the small towns.

Serr came up the hard way—from the "rinky dink" squad used for live bait in practice. He worked mostly on the defense last year subbing occasionally for Coleman on the offense.

Serr is only five feet seven inches tall but packs a powerful 205 pounds on his small frame. He's smart, fast and aggressive and has been one of the hardest workers on the squad during the spring practice session.

Young Squad

Michigan State has a young track team this year, forcing coach Karl Schlademan to point to 1953 or 1954 as the next big Spartan year.

The only seniors missing after the spring season will be Bob Carey in the shotput, Charles Roland and Dick Henson in the dashes.

In the distance and middle distance events Schademan has some youngsters who should be something with a year or more of seasoning.

Jim Kepford of Muskegon and John Cook of London, Ont., both have done 4:16 in the mile. Other promising distance runners include Ron Barr of Crown Point, Ind., Jim Arnold of Battle Creek, Lyle Garbe of Calgary, Alberta, and Jerry eZrbe of Flint.

Dick Jarrett of Oak Lawn, Ill., John Walter of Buffalo, N. Y., and Cook are the best middle distance men he's ever coached.

John Corbelli, a sophomore, is the best among the hurdlers and Jim Vrooman, a freshman, is a high jumper who already has hit six feet five inches.

McInnis To Manage Perronville Club

Mac McInnis was named manager of the Perronville baseball team of the Tri County league at a meeting held last evening.

Team members and the board of directors named Ben Johnson, manager last season, to act as team captain. Lawrence Viau is president of the board of directors and John Bartoszek is secretary-treasurer.

On the board are Elmer Kilb, Dona Viau, Ed Polishak, Fred Schoen and Johnny Shiverski.

Los Angeles—Johnny Gonsalves, 135, Oakland, Calif., outpointed Mario Trigo, 134¾, Monterrey, Mexico, 12.

Cub Pitchers Really Pitch

CHICAGO—(AP)—Those Chicago Cubs are right in there pitching.

And PITCHING is the word for it, with 10 complete games in 19 starts fashioned by a mound staff that seems to have surprised everybody except Bruin pilot Phil Cavarretta.

Within five days, Cub hurlers turned in two three-hitters and a four-hitter. Unfortunately, only one of those sparkling hill efforts—Johnny Klippstein's three-hit effort yesterday—paid off with a victory. Klippstein shut out the Braves, 2-0.

Last Friday, Turk Lown pitched no-hit ball against the Brooklyn Dodgers for eight innings, but yielded three blows in the ninth for a 3-1 loss. Then, Monday Lefty Paul Minner spaced four hit against the New York Giants only to lose 3-2.

Such pitching has been the rule rather than the exception for the Cubs, 1951 tail-enders who aren't supposed to finish far from the National league basement, if not in it, this year. They have been in the first division most of the time since the season opened.

So far, Bob Rush has been the most jostled workman with 36 hits banged against him in 32 innings. Still Big Bob has a 2-2 record and finished two of his starts.

The 24-year-old Klippstein has been the most pleasing performer with a 2-0 record, two complete games and a yield of only four earned runs in 28 innings. Last year, he started 11 games and finished only one, but still finished with a 6-6 record.

"Maybe others are surprised over our pitching, but I'm not," said Cavarretta, whose frisky charges have won 12 of their 19 starts. "Coach Charley Root worked hard with the kids this spring."

Kansas City Blues Continue To Climb In AA Standings

(By The Associated Press)

The Kansas City Blues, off to a bad start in the American association, gradually have climbed to third place in league standings.

The Blues were worked over pretty severely in the early games but lately have begun a drive that has given them a .550 won-lost percentage (11-9). They're only two games out of the lead.

Their latest victory was Tuesday night at Toledo. The Blues won their second straight from the Mudhens, gaining a 9-8 decision when a four-run oledo surge in the ninth inning fell short.

The association leadership has been dominated by Milwaukee and Louisville for the last week or so. The Brewers, who lost to Columbus 3-2 Tuesday, are now a half-game up on Louisville's Colonels who beat Minneapolis 7-2.

Sports Roundup

By GAYLE TALBOT

NEW YORK— (AP) —The rules of baseball go to elaborate lengths to protect the rights of the individual player, to make certain that a talented youngster is given a fair chance to make good in the big leagues and cannot be kept indefinitely in the low-salary minors at the whim of some owner who doesn't like the way he parts his hair.

Perhaps the most important safeguard is the rule which says that a player who has been in the big show for three seasons may not be sent back to the minors until every one of 15 other major league clubs has said it doesn't want him even at the waiver price of $10,000, which approximates a thin dime in these days of inflated price tags.

That seems fair enough to all parties. Certainly it protects a player from petty treatment. Yet in certain cases—and you can bet we have one in mind—the rule may work a severe hardship both on an aspiring athlete and on the club which owns him.

You may have noticed that Montie Kennedy, a southpaw who throws possibly the fastest ball in the game today, did a remarkable stint of relief pitching for the New York Giants the other day. He held the hot Chicago Cubs to a lone single for 6⅓ innings, retired 17 men in a row and was, in a word, sensational.

Those were the first balls the tall, raw-boned Virginian had thrown in anger for 23 days, since he blew a late inning lead in an exhibition game against Cleveland at Evansville, Ind. The victory was the first he had scored for the National league champions since last May 19, nearly a year ago. Yet he had been around all the time in between, eating his heart out either on the bench or in the bullpen.

Kennedy has been with Giants since 1946, except for part of the '48 season at Minneapolis. Until the past two years the club was pretty desperate for pitching, and the lefthander was a fairly regular starter, despite his wildness and fielding lapses. As late as 1949 he pitched 14 complete games and won 12 games while losing 14. There were many days when his sinking fast ball was virtually untouchable and one would have sworn he was on the brink of true greatness.

But in 1950, as Sal Maglie and Jim Hearn struck their stride and the Giant's staff attained depth, there was less work for Kennedy and his wildness increased on his rare appearances. Last year, locked in a tense pennant race, Manager Leo Durocher could take no chances and gave up on Montia completely. The disconsolate lefty pitched only one complete game, won one and lost two.

This spring, sore in spirit, Montia made life equally miserable for the Giants batters in practice at Phoenix. One day in particular he was, as they say, throwing aspirin tablets. The hitters really got no practice at all. They just stood well back from the plate and waved.

"Look at that boy throw!" exclaimed Tom Sheehan, the Giants' chief scout. "If only he could have been at Minneapolis last year, working every third or fourth day. He would be ready now."

Okay, why wasn't he sent out?

"Not a chance of getting waivers. Every club in the league would try to grab him."

Well, why not let one of them have him? He says he's got to pitch regularly to be effective.

"If we did that," said pitching coach Frank Shellenbach, "we would find ourselves batting against him. That is not a happy thought."

Aga Khan Donation Lost; Bank Folded

BOMBAY—(AP)—More than a third of the $1,333,710 which the Aga Khan donated to his Khoja Moslem followers in 1946 has been lost to the beneficiaries.

The presentation came after the diamond jubilee celebration of the Aga Khan when he was weighed against diamonds in Bombay. The Aga Khan had given the money equal in value to the diamonds, for the improvement of educational facilities.

Shortly after the deposit of $514,500 of the funds in a banking concern, the firm went into liquidation and the money was lost.

Skill In Transplanting Saves Plants From Shock

Transplanting, the movement of a plant from one location to another, is garden surgery. It administers a shock to the plant which may be compared to the effect of an operation. Most plants will recover, even though the operator is unskilled, but there are a few simple precautions which will increase the percentage of success.

If you are growing your own plants, prepare them for the experience by giving an extra feeding a week before the operation. In a bucket of water (2½ gallons) hang a cloth bag containing 10 ounces of your regular plant food, four ounces to the gallon. Let it soak overnight, then water the flat with the solution. This will build up the energy of your plants, for the ordeal to come.

The night before the operation, prepare another bucket of water the same way; or by using a soluble plant food according to the instructions for a starter solution. Take it to the garden along with the plants.

It is important to disturb the roots of plants as little as possible. If they are in pots, the soil will come out in a ball with little disturbance. If in a flat, they can be lifted with small injury, by taking care. Transplants which have been purchased without soil should not be allowed to dry out, and be kept in the shade.

Dig a hole large enough to hold the plant roots with room to spare, and deeper than necessary. Mix a teaspoonful of plant food with soil at the bottom of the hole; and throw on an inch of fresh soil. Now hold the plant where it is to stand, and pour into the hole, over the plant roots, half a pint of the plant food solution in the bucket. While the water remains in the hole and around the plant roots, draw in soil to fill the hole completely.

Do not prune the roots of the plant in any way, not even to remove broken roots.

Do not cut back the leaves and stem, although this was formerly the accepted practice. Experiment stations who have studied the matter advise that the plant needs all the roots and leaves it has, and will recover faster if you leave them intact.

Pouring water into the hole and drawing earth into the water excludes air pockets, and insures good contact between roots and soil. Do not pack the wet soil; it will settle down by its own shrinkage.

Plants set out in this way seldom wilt but in case they do, no harm is likely to result. They soon recover and begin growth as soon as the shock has worn off. There will always be a check in the rate of growth as a result of transplanting, and that is why plants grown from seed which are not transplanted, will mature faster than those which have undergone this operation. But because you start the seed indoors several weeks before it can be sown in the garden, you get an earlier harvest by transplanting.

Red Place Ban On Sideline Enterprises

HONG KONG—(AP)—The Chinese Communists are out to liquidate a sort of free enterprise system that grew up inside the party organization during the civil war.

Many communist political and military units, stationed far afield developed farms, factories and even heavy industry centers. Surpluses were sold at a profit, usually exclusively for the Communist big shots who ran them.

Now the Peiping regime has told them to turn the businesses over to the central government. The Peiping party mouthpiece, Liberation Daily, says such enterprises must go because they are susceptible to "bourgeois erosion."

Wall Street in New York City got its name because Peter Stuyvesant, early Dutch governor, had a wall built there to protect the city against expected raids by the English.

Tax Evaders Face Checkup By Experts

KUALA LUMPAR, Malaya—(AP)—Income tax experts from the Board of Inland Revenue in the United Kingdom are to help combat income tax evasion in Malaya.

A large section of the Asian business community is believed to be evading income tax. At present only one in 500 in the Federation of Malaya and one in 100 in Singapore pay income tax, according to official statistics.

A call traced—a life saved

One Monday morning recently, Telephone Operator Frances Malkiewicz of Detroit saw a flashing green signal caused by partial dialing. She plugged in and asked the customer for the number being called. But all she heard were moans from the other end of the line.

Frances quickly rang for the Chief Operator, Margaret M. Halligan, veteran of 38 years of telephone service. Margaret asked the customer for her address, but, finding her unable to talk, had the call traced.

Within a short time, police arrived at the customer's house, found that Mrs. David C. Fearn had been stricken ill. A physician was called immediately.

Later, the doctor paid tribute to the alertness of Chief Operator Margaret Halligan and Operator Frances Malkiewicz in helping to save Mrs. Fearn's life.
